MILITIA DISPERSES SESSION OF OKLAHOMA HOUSE

SURRENDER IN THE RUHR IS PROCLAIMED BY EBERT

German Executive in Statement to the People Announces Struggle Must Be Abandoned but Only Without the Giving Up of Any German Territory.

COUNTERSIGNED BY CABINET MINISTERS

Depends Upon the Powers Which Invaded the Nation and Their Allies as to Whether Peace Is Restored, It Asserts.

By the Associated Press.

BERLIN, Sept. 26.—President Ebert today issued a proclamation to the German people saying the struggle to support the financial strain of holding out in the Ruhr was too great and must be abandoned, but only without the surrender of the slightest particle of German territory.

The proclamation, which is countersigned by all the cabinet ministers, says:

"It depends upon the Powers which invaded us, and their allies, to restore peace to Germany by adhering to this conception, or, by rejecting this peace, to bring about all the results in the relations between the peoples which would proceed therefrom."

The proclamation, which was also signed by Chancellor Stresemann, said that the German Government had been compelled through bitter necessity to pass resistance. Adherence to passive resistance, said the document, would have brought on the economic collapse of Germany and consequently would have threatened the livelihood of the German people.

The Government appeals to the nation to stand by the republic in this present hour of severest soul-searching and material privation, as only thus can the nation's honor and life be conserved."

Adherence to passive resistance, said the document, would have brought on the economic collapse of Germany and consequently would have threatened the livelihood of the German people.

Less than 42 per cent of the registered voters appeared at the polls.

WOMAN SLAIN BY ESTRANGED HUSBAND

MRS. BLANCHE LONG.

WIFE KILLS SELF BESIDE SLEEPING HUSBAND

She Had Awakened Him With Kiss Hour Before, G. H. Tontrup Says.

Mrs. Clara Tontrup, 43 years old, wife of George H. Tontrup, a railway supply dealer, shot and killed herself at 8 a. m. today in a bedroom at her home, 4200 Washington boulevard, an hour after she had greeted her husband with an affectionate kiss.

No motive could be ascertained by the police. Tontrup told a patrolman that he was awakened by his wife at 7 a. m., and that she appeared to be in good health and spirits at that time. She kissed him, he said, and he went back to sleep. An hour later, he was awakened by the report of a revolver at his side.

Mrs. Tontrup had taken the weapon, a .38-caliber revolver, from a dresser drawer, Tontrup told the policeman, and had shot herself through the heart as she lay at his side. The police reported that Mrs. Tontrup left no note explaining her act.

By permission of the coroner, the body was taken to a chapel at 4449 Olive street. Mrs. Tontrup was well known socially. Her husband is in business at 293 South Theresa avenue.

MAN VISITS HOME OF ESTRANGED WIFE, KILLS HER AND SELF

Husband, Until Recently a Sergeant in Army, Had Made Several Efforts for Reconciliation.

WOMAN'S SON TELLS OF SHOOTING

Letter Addressed to "Dearest Paul" Found After Murder and Suicide at 1214 Madison Street.

Police called to 1214 Madison street at 7:30 a. m. today by neighbors, to whom the 6-year-old son of Mrs. Blanche Long, 25 years old, of that address, had run a few minutes earlier, crying that his "daddy had shot mamma," found Mrs. Long in bed with five bullet wounds through the body and her husband, Elmer H. Long, about 35, beside her with two wounds near the heart. Both were unconscious, and physicians at the city hospital, when they were taken there, pronounced them dead.

The Longs had been separated and the husband, until recently a Sergeant in the Sixth Infantry, had made several efforts to effect a reconciliation, neighbors said. On his body were found letters addressed to Mrs. Long in endearing terms from several men.

3 MEN KILLED WHEN PLANE FALLS 2500 FEET INTO LAKE

Victims Employed by Province of Quebec in Surveying and Forest Protection Work.

OPEN PIN IN BABY'S THROAT

North Carolina Infant Taken in Special Train to Philadelphia Hospital.

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 26.—Surgeons will try to save the life of a 5-month-old William Johnson Jr. at Jefferson Hospital by the removal of an open safety pin from his throat. His father is professor of astronomy at Jackson Institute, Concord, N. C. Sunday the baby swallowed the safety pin. X-ray pictures showed it was opened and lodged in the child's throat.

Concord physicians advised Prof. Johnson that Dr. Chevalier Jackson, professor of laryngology at Jefferson Hospital, was one of the few specialists in the country who could save the child's life. The father chartered a special train to bring him here. The run was made in 15 hours.

MAJESTIC MAKING RECORD RUN

Liner Expected to Clip 4 Hours From Fastest Previous Record.

By the Associated Press.

NEW YORK, Sept. 26.—The British Steamship Majestic of the White Star Line is making a record run from New York to Cherbourg, Sir Bertram Hayes, commander, wireless officials here today.

He reported that the Majestic expected to arrive at Cherbourg tomorrow night, clipping more than four hours from her present Eastern record run of five days, six hours and 13 minutes, set November, 1922. The Majestic averaged 25 knots an hour for the 24 hours ending at noon today.

DRIVES BLAZING CAR INTO LAKE

Tourist Finds New Use for Lake in Forest Park.

An automobile tourist from Oklahoma discovered today that the lake in Forest Park was useful for something besides boating.

He was driving a light touring car, with the gasoline tank mounted on the dash. Gasoline leaked and caught fire. Unable to extinguish the blaze, he cut across a strip of lawn and drove the car into the lake, a short distance east of the zoo bear pits. The measure was effective. The driver calmly surveyed the comparatively slight damage, while a companion went for a trouble car.

Butterfly Farm Proposal Denied.

LOS ANGELES, Sept. 26.—An application of W. F. Hewlett of Redlands, Cal., for 30 acres of public domain, near Upland, for use as a butterfly farm has been denied by the Department of Agriculture, according to word received here. Protests that butterfly propagation would make easy the introduction of injurious insects were made.

POLICEMAN REDUCES WORK BY GIVING OUT NEW TESTAMENTS

The More He Gets to "Read a Chapter a Day the Fewer Arrests" He Has to Make.

Special to the Post-Dispatch.

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 26.—Eugene Casey, patrolman, walks a beat in the heart of Philadelphia. He is not only a policeman, but an evangelist, a knight errant and missionary to structural steel workers.

Between directing traffic, answering questions and enjoying a rain, Casey recently was interviewing a workman on the new Bankers' Trust Building, on the northeast corner of Juniper and Walnut streets. The man had dropped a hammer on his toes and was expressing his feelings in good round English. Casey saw his opportunity, and hurried toward him. After a few words, the policeman handed him a little book, and the workman turned away. The patrolman took a book from his own pocket and set down the man's name and his number. It was No. 151.

The man was the 151st convert Casey made to the Pocket Testament League. The book he gave the workman was a copy of the New Testament, supplied by the league headquarters.

"The New Testament keeps them out of water, and gives them less work to do," said Casey. "The more men in this neighborhood I get to read a chapter a day the fewer arrests I have to make."

PUBLIC MAY VISIT AIR FIELD 2 DAYS BEFORE THE MEET

Saturday and Sunday, Noted Pilots Will Be Seen in Trial Flights—$5,000,000 Exhibit on View.

HANGARS AND PLANES MAY BE INSPECTED

Arrival of Contestants in "On-to-St. Louis" Race Also Will Be Feature Before Meet Begins.

St. Louis Field, where the international air races are to be held beginning next Monday, will be thrown open to the public Saturday and Sunday to give it an opportunity before the races begin to view the largest aeronautical exhibition ever assembled and see the arrival of contestants in the "On-to-St. Louis" race for the St. Louis Chamber of Commerce trophy. Famous pilots who are to take part in the big races will be at the field, and some of them will make trial flights over the 30-mile triangular course.

The entire field, pylons, hangars and the ships themselves, may be inspected by the public on these days, as well as the immense tent containing a $5,000,000 exhibit of airship parts and aeronautical equipment of the United States army and navy.

Non-Stop Plane Coming

This exhibit will show, among other things, the various types of airplane engines, electrically heated clothing for aviators, parachutes, models of all kinds of aircraft, and bombs used by the bombing planes.

With the racing planes and other ships that are to take part in the races will be the famous T-2 monoplane, which Lieut. MacReady and Kelly made the non-stop flight from New York to California in 36 hours. It was erroneously stated yesterday that the T-2 had reached St. Louis Field. It was a sister ship.

The T-2 which is one of the largest monoplanes in the world, hopped off at Dayton today for Scott Field and will be flown to St. Louis Field for the exhibition Saturday and Sunday. She will be exhibited with other celebrated planes of her kind, including her sister ship, a hospital ambulance plane, which is equipped with a surgical outfit, including hot and cold water under pressure, and three litters for carrying injured men.

Combat Squadron on Way

A combat squadron of 17 planes will arrive at St. Louis Field from Kelly Field, Texas, Saturday, flying in battle formation. Among them will be a new type of plane equipped to lay a smoke screen in the air.

Saturday night there will be a demonstration of night flying over the field, which will be illuminated. Pilots of the Sixth Army night bombing squadron will give this exhibition.

Sunday the Mulvihill trophy race for model airplanes will be held, and Sunday night another demonstration of night flying will be given.

Traffic regulations Saturday and Sunday will be the same as have been arranged for the three days of the race meet. The Air Board announces that there will be no congestion or delay in getting to or from the field.

TIME TO PRACTICE THE AVIATION NECK TWIST

FIRST "ON-TO-ST. LOUIS" RACER ARRIVES AFTER A MOONLIGHT FLIGHT

THE first arrival in the "On-to-St. Louis" race, preliminary event of the international air races, landed at Scott Field, near Belleville, early today. The pilot was Lawrence B. Sperry of Farmingdale, L. I., and he flew a Messenger plane of 60-horsepower, which he made himself.

After leaving home, Sperry flew to Washington, D. C., where he had business with Major-General Patrick, chief of the Army Air Service. He hopped off from Bolling Field, Washington, at 1:30 p. m. yesterday, made a stop at McCook Field, Dayton, O., and, leaving there at 6:30 p. m., made a moonlight trip to Scott Field, arriving there at 12:25 a. m. today. His time from Washington to Scott Field was just 12 hours.

He will drive his plane to St. Louis field probably tomorrow. As has been told, the "On-to-St. Louis" race is for the St. Louis Chamber of Commerce Trophy and $1000 in cash prizes. It is for civilian pilots only, and, in view of the variety of planes that will participate, the awards will be made on points, not necessarily to the one who arrives first. There were 27 entrants originally, but some of these may not start.

LEGISLATORS CLAIM VIOLATION OF RIGHTS

Oklahoma Assembly Members, After Dispersal, Say Fight Has Just Begun.

By the Associated Press.

OKLAHOMA CITY, Sept. 26.—A formal statement was issued by Oklahoma Legislators this afternoon, following the dispersal of the House by order of Gov. Walton. The statement said:

"We have the legal right to assemble both as citizens for redress of grievances, and as members of the House of Representatives, as a body, to inquire into the state of public affairs. The fight has just begun."

"We have been acting in a peaceful and lawful manner, and will continue to do so, and the people of the State are assured that nothing will be left undone to see that order is brought out of this chaotic condition, and that the dignity of the law is vindicated and constitutional government with all three branches thereof functioning, re-established in this State."

"That is the only issue, and we absolutely refuse to be diverted from it by any pretext whatever, notwithstanding we have just been by the bayonet dispersed from meeting at the great Capitol of this State, and that we are shadowed at our private rooms and elsewhere at the instance of the Governor of this State, and not permitted even to hold a caucus in our private rooms without cause of intimidation."

WEARS ROBE MRS. COOLIDGE KNIT

Baby in Fashion Pageant Has It On His Carriage.

By the Associated Press.

ATLANTIC CITY, Sept. 26.—The baby carriage robe knitted by Mrs. Calvin Coolidge, which won honorable mention in the recent national knitting contest, made its only public appearance today at a pageant in the Ambassador Hotel. Permission was granted to use the robe on the perambulator of nine-months-old Albert Johnson, who was wheeled at the hand-knitting fashion pageant, arranged as part of the American Bankers' Association convention program.

When noon came a throng was waiting outside the building, and State employees and other persons privileged to be in the Capitol, but not directly involved in the Governor's clash with the Legislature, were gathered about the upper railing, overlooking the rotunda, where the members were milling about.

As noon whistles blew Speaker pro tem Brice of the House stepped to the center of the space and announced:

"The hour of 12 noon, set for the special session of the House of Representatives, has come. The House will please come to order."

Col. W. S. Key of the National Guard then stood beside Brice and raised his hand for quiet. He read the proclamation of Gov. Walton, which began by reciting Ku Klux Klan oaths, and which spoke of the plan for a special session and ordered the National Guard to prevent the assembling of such a session.

"It becomes my duty," Col. Key announced, "to enforce the provisions of the Governor's order, prohibiting you from meeting, and directing you to disperse."

Representative Stovall asked: "You have the entire military force of the State at your command, have you not?"

"I refuse to answer," said the Colonel.

Representative Disney asked:

"Whether those present were to be dispersed as members of the Legislature, and Col. Key said they were. Col. Key then said he would refuse to answer any further questions."

The members stood around talking for a few minutes, and Col. Key then called Maj. McCartney and directed him to carry out the order for dispersing the Legislature. Hearing this, members began to move out of the building, and went in different directions, some stopping to exchange pleasantries with the officers and guardsmen.

Program Carried Out

It was learned, soon afterward, that the program carried out in the Capitol rotunda was one which had been agreed upon in advance, substantially, by Col. Key and Representative McBee, a leader of the anti-Walton legislative forces.

McBee said, after the gathering dispersed, that the matter would now go to a group of attorneys engaged by himself and other legislators to test their rights by such court action as they may decide to take. These lawyers are S. P. Freeling, former Attorney-General; A. R. Keaton, former Justice of the (territorial) Supreme Court, and C. H. Stuart, former Federal Judge.

It was estimated that 90 of the 107 members of the House were present when order of dispersal was carried out. Of these, something more than 60 are regarded as actively opposed to Gov. Walton, who charges that the House opposition to him is inspired by the Ku Klux Klan organization.

The House Legal Committee met at a hotel within an hour after the legislators had been dispersed. Several alleged secret operatives of Gov. Walton were ordered from the legislative headquarters in the hotel, and they left without protest.

Governor Appeals to Coolidge. Last night was marked by an appeal from Gov. Walton to President Coolidge and Attorney-General Daugherty to prevent the legislators from meeting in the Federal Building in Oklahoma City.

Replying to the Governor, C. Bacon, Kansas, secretary to the President, informed him that use of the Federal Building for purposes other than Government business is contrary to the regulations.

The Governor gave out his telegram to Washington, though he was informed there was no probability an attempt would be made to go

GOV. WALTON'S ORDER ENFORCED WITHOUT ANY DISTURBANCES

Majority of House Members, Responding to Special Session Call, Admitted to Rotunda of the Capitol.

LEGISLATORS, HALTED AFTER CONVENING, PLAN COURT TEST

Estimated That 90 of 107 Members Gathered at Call of Speaker Pro Tem at Noon, When Militia Officer Ordered Them to Move.

By CURTIS A. BETTS.
A Staff Correspondent of the Post-Dispatch.

OKLAHOMA CITY, Ok., Sept. 26.—The Oklahoma House of Representatives was prevented by National Guard officers from convening in the Capitol Building at noon today, in its intended extraordinary session called to consider impeachment charges against Gov. Walton. The military arm of the State Government, acting on the Governor's order, dispersed the legislators, without any casualties or even any angry words, on the part of those in official position.

"This is going to be a tea party without tea," Adjutant-General Markham declared at 10 a. m., two hours before the time set for the opening of the special impeachment session. His prediction seemed to be borne out, though others suggested that the occasion was more like the traditional march of the King of France, with a large body of men, up a certain hill, which was followed by his marching down again.

For the legislators marched up, all right. A majority of the members of the House were gathered in the rotunda of the Capitol building noon after 11 o'clock. They were admitted to the building by the militiamen, who were stationed at the four entrances of the Capitol and who excluded all except the legislators and employees of State offices. It was decided to admit the legislators to the building, National Guard officers said, because they could be handled more easily there than outside, where there was a crowd of spectators.

Two privates of the militia stood before the locked door of the House chamber and two others before the door of the Senate chamber. Several of the higher officers of the Guard were there. One of them, Col. Graves, noticed a few minutes before the noon hour that the members of the House appeared to be gathering in front of the door of the House chamber.

Col. Graves went among the members and spoke to them individually, asking them to avoid gathering there or in any other massed position. Most of them walked away from the immediate vicinity of the door.

House Called to Order. When noon came a throng was waiting outside the building, and State employees and other persons privileged to be in the Capitol, but not directly involved in the Governor's clash with the Legislature, were gathered about the upper railing, overlooking the rotunda, where the members were milling about.

RUHR AND RHINE SEPARATISTS PLAN CAMPAIGN CLIMAX

Leaders Say That if French Deem It Politic, Separate State Will Be Fact Within the Week.

QUIETLY TRAINING THEIR OWN ARMY

Railroads Controlled by France Said to Prepare to Take 200,000 Demonstrators to Ruhr City.

By SAMUEL SPEWACK.
(Copyright, 1923, by the Press and Public Publishing Co., New York World and the Post-Dispatch.)

DUESSELDORF, Sept. 26.—The French railroad regime will bring to this city on Sunday 200,000 Separatists for a climax to the weeks of demonstrations for a Ruhr and Rhine republic.

Private information given by leaders in the movement indicates that, if the French deem it politic, a separate state, including Germany's heart of steel and coal, will be a reality within the week. The leader in the movement is Dr. Frederic Mathes, newspaper editor, who said in an interview:

"The Rhineland's enemy is Prussia. We have suffered long enough for Berlin's sins. We have had enough of Berlin's paper mack. The time has come for breaking away."

Awake! Protest.

The separatists' plans are to wait, if possible, for trouble in Bavaria, so that they can break away under cover of the general crumbling of the Reich. From interviews with Dr. Mathes, Dorsen and Smeets it is apparent that the French final word of the day is "revolution."

The French do not want the charge made that they intrigued to split Germany. They do not want to keep an army to preserve the republic's power. So the separatists are quietly training their own army, and hope to show the French that they are able to maintain order by themselves.

Dr. Mathes' idea is for an immediate issuance of new money, backed by the French railroad administration and Ruhr coal and such French money as can be had. The French will keep the present system which with 75 efficiently run lines, gives Paris a strangle hold on the territory. Under the present plans the capital of the new state would be Cologne, with Cologne remaining under British control.

Information from Cologne is that the British are not opposed to a separate state.

Would Be President.

Headquarters of the movement at Duesseeldorf is up three flights of rickety stairs, in a long room with a typical middle class German atmosphere. The secretarial work. Couriers report there from all parts of the proposed new state. Dr. Mathes has undertaken a complete dictatorship, and would be the president of the republic, which, in reality, would be a vassal state formed around French control of the railroads.

Smeets, though he still continues in the movement, has been ousted from the directorate of the separatists. Dorsen, because of his open relations with the French, is kept in the background. Dr. Mathes seeks to give the impression that only casual relations are had with the French, though there is intimate contact with the French military and press department. All meetings of the separatists are protected by the French, who make a point not to interfere, except when it looks as if Germans and separatists would come to bloody encounters. The French

REVIVAL OF RUHR INDUSTRY FACES MANY DIFFICULTIES

While People Welcome End of Struggle. They Are in No Mood to Return to Work After Having Been Paid Subsidies.

Special Cable to the Post-Dispatch and Chicago Daily News.
(Copyright, 1923.)

BERLIN, Sept. 26.—Throughout the whole Ruhr today, leaders are telling the population of the decision to end passive resistance and are urging upon them the necessity of returning as quickly as possible to hard work and full productivity. Only the Communists are opposing the surrender and they are doing so only to further their own political schemes.

The Ruhr population welcomes the end of the struggle. But it is feared that a long and painful period of transition must intervene before the Ruhr can resume normalcy.

Psychologically, the Ruhr population is in no mood for a return to hard work. The truth is that the enormous Ruhr subsidies, which they have been living, have demoralized large portions of the population. Many enjoyed getting paid for doing nothing, while many others were grossly overpaid for what little work they did.

Much of the money appears to have gone into queer channels. It is generally believed in Berlin that many who received subsidies used the money for speculation, thus further depressing the very marks in which they had been paid.

The transition from a state of nervous idleness to intense rhythmic work will be difficult. Railroad tracks need much repairing. Rolling stock is scarce and in poor condition. Communications, as managed by the French and Belgians, are inadequate for one-fifth of the Ruhr's needs and it may be a long time before the expelled railway men can be brought back to take up their work under French supervision.

Meanwhile the Ruhr urgently needs food. The whole winter's supply of potatoes must be imported and distributed within the next month, before the frosts come. Many factories are without raw materials, while others are financially exhausted. These must find credit to enable them to acquire materials and seek orders.

Politically, the situation is unfavorable to a speedy resumption of productivity. The authority of the trades union leaders has been impaired. Many workers, under Communist influence, will make maximum wage demands and probably work badly. The municipal administration, whose best talent has been expelled by the French, will find it difficult to handle the reconstruction job, where everything must be done at once.

The separatist movement, working vigorously and under French protection, will keep the minds of the people constantly upset. Hence there is little reason to hope that the Ruhr can make the immediate contribution of reparations and materials which the French Government seems to demand.

Want to make sure the separatists learn how to take care of themselves.

French Opinion Favors Separation. But Not Aid to Movement.

Special Cable to the Post-Dispatch and the Chicago Daily News.
(Copyright, 1923.)

PARIS, Sept. 26.—With Germany, according to some observers, on the verge of disintegration, it is important to know the attitude of France toward the Rhineland separatist movement. After a painstaking inquiry, the correspondent is prepared to offer an authoritative statement on this point, the first statement of its kind issued from Paris.

Watchful waiting and benevolent neutrality, involving approval, but not material aid, can be said to be France's attitude toward separatism. The Rhineland movement is an internal German affair, with which we can sympathize, but in which we cannot take sides," Paul Tirard, French delegate on the Rhineland high commission, said recently.

"The Rhineland separatist leaders may or may not be sincere," said a high official of the Quai d'Orsay. "But at least, they profess to be well disposed toward us. To suppress them in the midst of their protestations of friendship for France would be asking too much. They constitute a distinct improvement over the other Germans."

Virtually all parties and all shades of public opinion in this country except the Socialists and Communists, approve the idea of separatism in the abstract but all are unwilling to offer concrete aid in putting it into effect. There is only one small faction, headed by the historian, Maurice Barres, which comes out openly for Rhineland independence. The others reserve judgment.

The collapse of Great Britain toward the separatist movement, probably has much to do with this reserve. That the Poincare Government supplies money directly to Dorsen, Mathes and Co. as Germans assert, is doubtful. But that Premier Poincare is instrumental in showing them where they can find money is possible.

"No Quarter to Separatist Traitors," Say Labor Chiefs.

By the Associated Press.
COLOGNE, Sept. 26.—"Give no quarter to the separatist traitors," is the command given by the labor leaders in the Rhineland to their following, who are urged to bend all their efforts toward the maintenance of national unity.

The opinion of the German press in the Rhineland area supports the Berlin Government's action in calling off passive resistance, but warning is given against possible advantage being taken of the situation by the separatist elements.

PARIS, Sept. 26.—With Germany, according to some observers, on the verge of disintegration, it is important to know the attitude of France toward the Rhineland separatist movement. After a painstaking inquiry, the correspondent is prepared to offer an authoritative statement on this point, the first statement of its kind issued from Paris.

Watchful waiting and benevolent neutrality, involving approval, but not material aid, can be said to be France's attitude toward separatism. The Rhineland movement is an internal German affair, with which we can sympathize, but in which we cannot take sides," Paul Tirard, French delegate on the Rhineland high commission, said recently.

"The Rhineland separatist leaders may or may not be sincere," said a high official of the Quai d'Orsay. "But at least, they profess to be well disposed toward us. To suppress them in the midst of their protestations of friendship for France would be asking too much. They constitute a distinct improvement over the other Germans."

Virtually all parties and all shades of public opinion in this country except the Socialists and Communists, approve the idea of separatism in the abstract but all are unwilling to offer concrete aid in putting it into effect. There is only one small faction, headed by the historian, Maurice Barres, which comes out openly for Rhineland independence. The others reserve judgment.

The collapse of Great Britain toward the separatist movement, probably has much to do with this reserve. That the Poincare Government supplies money directly to Dorsen, Mathes and Co. as Germans assert, is doubtful. But that Premier Poincare is instrumental in showing them where they can find money is possible.

"No Quarter to Separatist Traitors," Say Labor Chiefs.

By the Associated Press.
COLOGNE, Sept. 26.—"Give no quarter to the separatist traitors," is the command given by the labor leaders in the Rhineland to their following, who are urged to bend all their efforts toward the maintenance of national unity.

The opinion of the German press in the Rhineland area supports the Berlin Government's action in calling off passive resistance, but warning is given against possible advantage being taken of the situation by the separatist elements.

LIEUTENANT IS RECALLED IN DESTROYER WRECK INQUIRY

Navigation of U. S. S. Delphy Which Led Squadron to Destruction Is Questioned Further.

By the Associated Press.
SAN DIEGO, Sept. 26.—Lieut. Laurence F. Blodgett, navigator of the U. S. S. Delphy, when she led six other ships to destruction on the rocks off Honda, Calif., September 5, was recalled to the stand when the naval court of inquiry resumed its sessions today.

Lieut. Blodgett yesterday requested and obtained leave to post pone further testimony on the ground that his counsel could not be present until late this week, but when the court convened today he offered to go on the stand immediately.

The testimony, which led up to Blodgett's entry into the case as a defendant, contained an admission that he and the Delphy's commander had attached little weight. To radio compass bearings from Point were too far North of the point to make a change of course into Santa Barbara Channel.

Losses in Persian Quake

Nine Villages Destroyed, 22 Others Damaged and 157 Killed.

By the Associated Press.
ALLAHABAD, British India, Sept. 26.—Partially destroyed by the earthquake which shook the vicinity of Bujnurd, Persia, last Thursday, says a message received from Meshed, northeastern Persia, today.

The shock caused the death of 137 persons and the injury of 148. The center of the disturbance was the Atrak River, along the line between Mena and Shirvan.

sumption of work as represented by the amount collected in money and kind by the allies.

The truth is that doubt and pessimism have crept into the natural joy felt here over the victory in the Ruhr.

When the Nationalists manifest nervousness and call the Government's attention to the economic difficulties likely to follow in the wake of Germany's financial collapse and to the problems which will require immediate solution when the Reich ceases its subsidies to Ruhr workmen.

Poincare to Await Evidence.

Premier Poincare has not yet satisfied himself that resistance is certain to be abandoned and he will take no more respecting relations with Germany until the change in the German attitude becomes a demonstrated fact. It will then be in order for the mine operators and heads of the other industries in the Ruhr valley to conform to the program of the authorities.

If this is done the way will be open for Germany to make proposals.

The French Government, it is declared, will count the return of the functionaries who were expelled for acts of sabotage and encouraging rebellion against the authorities of occupation. French authorities have reported that there is no desire on the part of the population of the Ruhr or Rhineland to see the Prussian office holders return.

Party Leaders Also Heard.

After conferring with the visiting Premier, the Chancellor received delegations representing the Reichstag parties, of which the German Nationalists assume an oppositional attitude. The reactionaries demanded nothing short of an ultimatum to France and a breach of relations unless the occupying Powers immediately concede the points of honor which Stresemann sought to make a prior condition to his surrender of passive resistance.

The United Socialists, Clericals, Democrats and the Chancellor's own party, the German People's Party, sanctioned the Government's action, and while there was scattering opposition this was viewed as being prompted chiefly by reasons of personal prestige. Active opposition from the Bavarian People's party, which normally votes with the Clericals, is not anticipated and if the Bavarians conclude to withhold their support in the Reichstag it is believed their opposition will be of a negative character.

Chancellor Stresemann's most convincing argument throughout his conversations during the last 48 hours proved to be the official admission that passive resistance had been costing Germany eight quadrillion marks weekly toward the end. The mention of this promptly melted the wavering doubters, but reactionaries preferred to make an issue of the nation's "honor and dignity."

The Chancellor will discuss the Government's surrender of the Ruhr with the Reichstag's committee of circles today. Reichstag circles will be informed whether the Chancellor has given direct or indirect assurances that his unconditional relinquishment of passive resistance will be reciprocated by a concession "on points of honor."

LEGISLATORS BARRED FROM U. S. BUILDINGS

Government to Adhere to "Hands Off" Policy in Oklahoma Klan Fight.

By the Associated Press.
WASHINGTON, Sept. 26.—Should members of the Oklahoma Legislature failing to gain entrance to the State Capitol, attempt to meet for their proposed special session in the Federal building at Oklahoma City, they will find the doors closed to them by orders of the Federal Government.

This decision was reached last night in response to Gov. Walton's appeal to President Coolidge and Attorney-General Daugherty to prevent the use of the Federal building in Oklahoma by the State legislators.

Telegram Sent By Siemp.

The telegram dispatched to the Governor by C. Bascom Siemp, secretary of the Federal building, today, before the military courts in Tulsa and Oklahoma City, which have been printed in the Post-Dispatch.

Make Up of the Paper.

A two-line heading on the first page of the paper reads: "Are you for the American Republic or the Invisible Empire?"

In the center of the page is a black-bordered three-column box, headed "Conspiracy." It quotes the Federal Ku Klux Law, Chapter 118, 16 Statutes at Large 141.

A second banner line just below the middle of the first page reads: "Civil authorities of Tulsa and Oklahoma City are under the domination of the Invisible Empire."

The Major at first said "As a member of the Legislature," but became suspicious because of the frequency of the question and to others replied that he did not know that he had been given a list of names with instructions to hand one notice to each person on the list.

Members of the Legislature intended to prosecute guard officers under a section of the Oklahoma statutes prohibiting any person from interfering with a member of the Legislature in attendance upon a session. This of course is on the theory that the proposed situation is legal. The Governor insists it is not.

The Governor said last night that 35,000 civilians had volunteered to aid in suppressing "the rebellion," but obviously insisted that it is not probable that there have been a half dozen so-called enlistments.

Police Ordered to "Disperse All Gatherings" on the Streets.

By the Associated Press.
OKLAHOMA CITY, Ok., Sept. 26.—The Oklahoma City Police Department is ordered by military authorities to "disperse all gatherings" on the streets today and to prohibit talk "that might inflame the citizens."

The military order signed by Maj. J. C. Campbell, Supervisor of Police, was followed by instructions to police officers to enforce the military decree. The military order reads:

"To all officers, both military and civil, that there shall be no unnecessary trouble in carrying into effect the proclamation of the Governor, both military and civil officers are directed to disperse any and all gatherings and to prohibit speeches on the street that might inflame the citizens."

Chief of Police Frazier's order: "To all City and Officers: You are hereby instructed to enforce the city ordinance in reference to peace matters pertaining to our Government or anything that might arouse suspicion where three or more are gathered together. You are also ordered to stop all public speaking relative to the above. You are commanded to see that the ordinance is enforced without further instructions."

Mass Meeting at Enid Condemns Six Acts of Gov. Walton.

By the Associated Press.
ENID, Ok., Sept. 26.—Only six persons opposing a mass meeting here last night adopted resolutions condemning Gov. Walton for his recent action.

Six of the Governor's alleged acts are protested against in the resolutions. They are:

"Suspending the writ of habeas corpus, contrary to State and national constitution, stationing troops among us in times of peace, arbitrarily abridging the freedom of the press; turning out criminals wholesale from the penitentiary; suspending the functions of the courts and denying the right of our Legislature to assemble, thus making it possible for himself to commit any crime with impunity."

Gov. Walton's Newspaper Issued at Cost of $7000

Contents Largely Statements of Executive in Fight on Klan and Evidence Obtained in Investigation of Flogging Cases.

By CURTIS A. BETTS.
A Staff Correspondent of the Post-Dispatch.

OKLAHOMA CITY, Ok., Sept. 26.—Gov. Walton has issued the first copy of "The Record," a four-page publication which he said it was necessary to circulate because Oklahoma City newspapers would not publish statements he issued in his fight on the Ku Klux Klan. He charged they were unfair in their news reports of the situation.

He placed the cost of printing the 260,000 copies he said had been issued as $7000, and said it was only $3000 had been received as a result of his appeal for funds. The paper appeared yesterday.

For the most part the contents of the Record were statements issued by Walton and portions of the testimony before the military courts in Tulsa and Oklahoma City, which have been printed in the Post-Dispatch.

WOMAN SUING BROCKMAN IS HELD ON U. S. WARRANT

Mr. Maybel's Marshall of Memphis, Tenn., Accused of Effort to Use Mails to Defraud in Nevada.

TAKEN AS SHE LEAVES HEARING

Defense in $800,000 Damage Case Based on Arrest Had Questioned Her About Love Notes.

Mrs. Maybel's Marshall of Memphis, Tenn., was arrested as she was about to leave a law office in the downtown Bank building, at 1 o'clock this afternoon, under a federal warrant issued by Federal authorities in Nevada, charging her with an effort to use the mails to defraud.

She had been at the office testifying in her deposition in her suit for $800,000 damages against President Brockman of the Police Board, who she is president, and Otto F. Karbe, his attorney, which grew out of her arrest last October on a charge of drawing a check for $28.05 which later was dropped.

The warrant named her as Fleiger, which is alleged to be her real name. The arrest was made by Postoffice Inspector Noah and Deputy United States Marshal Kennedy.

Her bond was set at $2500, which her attorney said she would probably furnish today.

Mrs. Marshall's suit charged that she was arrested last in Omaha, Neb., Oct. 16 last and "thrown into a dark, desolate and dreary cavern of steel where every instinct of her femininity was outraged and tortured by the unutterable obscenity of the vilest and most degraded caricatures of humanity."

She was testifying today before former Circuit Judge Garesche, special commissioner.

Biographical Study Made. Taking of depositions by the defense in Mrs. Marshall's damage suit has disclosed that the defense has made a careful biographical study of the plaintiff. Among facts brought out is that she has been engaged in traveling in Illinois, showing Bibles.

It was shown, under questioning of her by Felix Cornitus, attorney for the defense, that she was born in a small Illinois town, and had traveled through the Middle West and South from Philadelphia to California, via Reno, and from Florida to British Columbia.

She said she remembered little of her first marriage, that she was 11 years old, and had had a child the first time she engaged in matrimony. Details of her second marital adventure recurred to her somewhat more vividly, out as to the last she said she couldn't remember much because it had been so "unfortunate" that she strove to forget it.

Divorced Husband No. 3 in Reno. However, she said she left husband No. 3 in Chicago and went to Philadelphia to recuperate from an illness, but he found her there; they went to Detroit and she slipped away to avoid his pursuit, and obtained a divorce at Reno, Nev.

When she appeared yesterday to continue her deposition it was apparent that she was not feeling well. By she sniffed sprints of ammonia. Her lawyer, Randolph Laughlin, and Cornitus engaged in a colloquy as to whether to proceed, but she said "I stay would be of help, that her condition would be the same as previously after an hour or two of the questioning I went through before."

The defense then introduced nearly a score of exhibits, mostly letters, trying to have declared that she was "a business woman" when she was a court reporter in Memphis, Tenn. She denied she had known him as married.

He alleged himself contained enervating salutations and vaguely hinted that she should be "unquestioned." In another, which the defense called "the classic," the plaintiff was asked to stop drinking, with the promise that the writer would do likewise, as a good example. He went on to declare that neither Mrs. Marshall nor Shaker had "ever conceived of a love greater than mine." In closing, there was a quatrain eulogizing the woman who would remain true under adverse circumstances.

Asked for Flower If Spurned. Another tender message, apparently from the same enamored one, asked that she send a yellow flower, which was a dandelion. If she spurned him, but said it probably would not find him alive.

A letter purporting to have been written by another private detective, Mrs. Marshall spoke of how detective a companion she was. He went on to tell that he was going to St. Louis to see his wife.

Mrs. Marshall testified that she recalled some of the contents of the

GRAND JURY ACTION ON BRIBE CHARGE LIKELY TO GO OVER

Present Body to Be Dissolved Saturday and Supreme Court Will Not Act Until Next Week.

It appeared probable today that the present grand jury could not follow its indicated intention to inquire into the alleged bribe proposals made by a member of the Board of Aldermen to Alphonsus L. Browne, general agent of the Manufacturers' Railway, while a bill, of interest to the railway, was pending in the board.

The grand jury will adjourn and dissolve Saturday. Information from Jefferson City is that the Supreme Court will not pass upon the application of Browne's attorney for a writ forbidding the grand jury to inquire further into the matter until some time next week. Several Supreme Court Judges are absent from Jefferson City.

One Object of Investigation. One of the objects of the present investigation, it is believed at the Municipal Courts Building, is to attempt to bring out disclosures in addition to the identity of the Alderman alleged to have offered a $15,000 bribe from the Manufacturers' Railway (Busch Line).

The case involved is a misdemeanor and more than a year has elapsed since the date in March, 1922, when the bribe is alleged to have been solicited. This would put it beyond the limit of the statute of limitations in such cases. However, the naming of the Alderman might result in other information being made available for the grand jury, it was said, even if no indictment was returned in the case of the suspected Alderman.

It was suggested the case might have a bearing on some transaction, or condition, of which the grand jury may have partial information.

In written suggestions filed with the Supreme Court, Assistant Attorney-General Henry Davis, who as State's Attorney appeared for Judge Calhoun, stated the grand jury

PRISONER WHOSE CAR HIT WOMAN FREED AS POOR MAN

$25,000 Fund, Last of Fortune, Is Ordered Paid to Claimants—He Takes Lumber Mill Job.

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 26.—Philip C. Valentine, son of the late J. Valentine, who was president of the Wells Fargo Express Co., will leave San Quentin prison today after serving one year of a sentence of one to three years for running down and injuring Mrs. George Boyer of San Jose, with his automobile. He is to take a job in a lumber mill in Washington.

The last of Valentine's fortune, a trust fund of $25,000, is to be paid to claimants against Valentine, on an order entered yesterday by Superior Judge Quinn in Oakland. Mrs. Boyer is to receive the residue after payment of $5000 to Valentine's wife and $1000 to his attorney, Mrs. Boyer, who holds a judgment against Valentine for $15,943, is said to have made settlement out of court with the other claimants.

Valentine was paroled. might have wider information, than that sought of Browne alone. He stated it would establish a "dangerous precedent to prohibit the grand jury from continuing its inquiry."

Position of Browne. Browne, through his silence, has been in a somewhat unfortunate position of going in and out of jail. He has declined to explain his silence, other than that he had refused to name the alleged solicitor of the bribe for personal reasons, and not because he feared he would incriminate himself.

Whether the grand jury, which will be called to succeed the present one, will take up the matter is problematical. Circuit Judge Calhoun, who committed Browne to jail for refusal to name the suspected Alderman to the jury, said today that perhaps the next grand jury would take up the matter through "judicial courtesy." Circuit Judge Grimm will be in charge of the new jury and will direct its activities. Judge Calhoun explained "judicial courtesy" in the matter as the frequent practice of one Judge directing a grand jury to take up matters left incomplete by the preceding jury, which had been in charge of a judicial colleague.

Meanwhile Browne will be at the command of the next grand jury. The bond under which he was released yesterday holds him for appearance upon call until Dec. 1. His release was upon telegraphic direction of the Supreme Court pending Goes Before Grand Jury at Own Request, but Refuses to Answer Questions.

By the Associated Press. NEW YORK, Sept. 26.—Seymour L. Cromwell, president of the New York Stock Exchange, went before the grand jury at his own request today after he had appeared at the offices of District Attorney Danton and declined to answer questions concerning his address at Atlantic City on Monday, in which he alleged that politicians had attempted extortion from Stock Exchange officials under threat of adverse legislation.

When Cromwell emerged from the grand jury room he said District Attorney Banton knew the names of the men he referred to in his Atlantic City speech and that "the public will know the names within a few days." He declined to amplify his statement and Banton refused to say anything.

When Oxen Were Tied In Fourth Street

—When Twelfth Street was a residence district and cattle were put to pasture a little beyond Jefferson Avenue—even then, The St. Louis Dairy Company was depended upon for the delivery of pure, fresh milk.

We have kept step with the progress of St. Louis from a river town to the metropolis of today. To meet this expansion we have gone thirty-five miles out into the country to establish a modern pasteurizing and bottling plant at Highland, Ill., away from the city's smoke and grime. There, rich milk from healthy cows is bottled. The swift, refrigerated trucks of the St. Louis Dairy Company speed milk to the city fresher by a day than by any other system.

Over a half-century ago particular housewives made St. Louis Dairy Company milk their choice. Today the particular grand-daughters of those early patrons are likewise depending upon its quality. The confidence of three generations has been effectively sustained.

Give your family only the best in milk and dairy products. For delivery at your home, call the St. Louis Dairy Company—Bomont 995; Central 7490. St. Louis Dairy Company milk is also sold by more than 1000 retail merchants.

PASSING OF RED-COATED IRISH JUDGES LIKELY

Bill Altering Judiciary System in Existence Since Time of Henry VIII Now in Dail.

Copyright, 1923, Special Cable to the Post-Dispatch and Chicago Daily News.

DUBLIN, Sept. 24.—Up-to-date methods of court procedure, similar to those employed in the United States, will prevail in Ireland if the judiciary bill introduced in the Dail becomes a law. The bill alters the whole system of law courts, which has been in existence since the time of Henry VIII.

The scheme is an amplification of the system devised by the Sinn Fein when it set up its own courts in 1920, in rivalry to the British courts, which were quickly reduced to idleness. Those Sinn Fein courts were illegal, and the British sent the judges to jail—yet their decisions were obeyed.

No More Red-Robed Judges. Under the new law, all the picturesque machinery of British courts, the red-robed judges of the court, with their uniformed halberds and cavalry escorts—will disappear. In their place will appear Circuit Judges, living in their own districts and working five days a week, as against the three months a year put in by their more numerous predecessors.

The next big step on the ministerial program is a revolution in methods of local government. Details are not available, but the Ministers have been working on the problem, and again American methods seem likely to be used. The American plan of commission form of government as a substitute for the usual bulky debating councils, is under consideration. At present chaos reigns in the local administration, with huge arrears in unpaid taxes awaiting collection.

Next on the reform program will come a bill for better enforcement of the liquor laws and punishment of unlicensed moonshiners, who have grown numerous in the recent period of laxity caused by armed attacks on the State.

Republicans Still Absent.

The new legislature is proceeding with its work unaffected by the absence of the Republican members, who now have decided definitely to refuse to subscribe to the oath of allegiance. Peace makers have urged the Republicans to take the oath, on the ground that it means nothing and is not binding, but the Countess Marlevic replies on their behalf that they regard all oaths as binding and that it is contrary to Christian teaching to take a false oath. There have been rumors that the Government intends to declare vacant all seats to which Republicans were elected and to hold fresh elections. These rumors, however, lack confirmation. Even if Parliament had the will and power to take this step, it would face the embarrassing possibility of seeing re-elected many of the unseated members.

MISSOURI FARMERS TO HAVE FARM MARKET FORECASTS

Service to Be Given by the State College of Agriculture.

COLUMBIA, Mo., Sept. 24.—Forecasts of agricultural markets and the interpretation of agricultural statistics is soon to become a part of the service rendered Missouri farmers by the Missouri College of Agriculture, according to an announcement by A. A. Jeffrey, agricultural editor of the University of Missouri.

This service and the investigations on which it will be based are considered so important, according to Dean F. B. Mumford of the College of Agriculture and director of the Experiment Station, that not less than three men have recently been added to the department or rural life and farm management, with one man's entire time devoted to this service.

Donald R. Cowan has been appointed as professor of marketing. He will have charge of investigations and teaching in marketing and in the utilization of statistics.

Under his direction the college will continue the investigation of the influence of roads and distance to market on the kind of products a farmer can profitably handle.

Other additions to the staff of the College of Agriculture in the department of rural life and farm management are W. L. Witte, assistant professor of rural sociology, and L. B. Hummel, extension specialist in community organization. Witte comes from Indiana. H. C. Hensley has been appointed extension specialist in co-operative marketing, according to Jeffrey. Hensley until recently was State extension agent, with headquarters at the College of Agriculture here, and prior to that was identified with extension work in Southwest Missouri, where he was instrumental in the establishment of several co-operative commodity marketing organizations.

Bids for Cement for Roads.

By the Associated Press.

JEFFERSON CITY, Mo., Sept. 24.—Bids will be opened here Sept. 28 by the State Highway Commission for cement sufficient for State road work requirements for the next one, three or five years. New Gentle Method Removes Every Line

No longer need you bear the hideous marks of weariness and advancing age. Tired lines, tiny crow's feet and deep-seated wrinkles can now be avoided. For a marvelous new cream has been discovered which gently smooths them all away. It is as if the skin had been touched by a magic wand, and made clear and youthful again.

This new discovery is called Domino Wrinkle Cream. It works differently from anything that has ever been tried before. Most treatments try merely to conceal or cover up wrinkles. But it is only by getting at the underlying cause of wrinkles that they can be removed. Domino Wrinkle Cream treats the cause, and a wonderful change is soon brought about. Each unsightly line is gently lifted away, revealing a new smooth and marvellously youthful complexion. Even after the first few days' use, the face appears years younger than before. Why look old? Why not have the appearance and charm of youth, now that unsightly lines and wrinkles can be made to disappear so easily? Domino Wrinkle Cream is guaranteed to remove each and every wrinkle, and a special $10.00 bank deposit backs up this guarantee. If you are not more than delighted with results, your money will be instantly refunded. Domino Wrinkle Cream is sold at good drug and department stores everywhere, such as Wolf-Wilson, Judge & Lough, Johnson Bros., Enderle Stores, Ritz, Barr & Fuller and Nugent's Department Store.

There is a quick way to sell that too—through Post-Dispatch wants. Place your order or leave it with your nearest druggist.

'GOLFITIS' GETS DENTIST OFF JURY DUTY AT BUTLER, MO.

But Plea of His Professional Duties Is Only One That Weighs Naught With Judge.

By the Associated Press. BUTLER, Mo., Sept. 26.—The fact that a man is afflicted with "golfitis" is sufficient to excuse him from jury duty, provided he can show the symptoms. But the statement that he is a dentist does not affect the situation at all, according to a ruling of Circuit Judge Calvird of the Henry County Court.

Dr. W. M. Calvert, whose name was drawn on the petit jury list, filed a petition with the Clerk of the court in due form praying that he be discharged from jury service and giving the following reasons:

"Your petitioner admits that he is suffering from 'golfitis' in its advanced stages, some of the manifestations of which are catalogued as follows: Its effects are startling; the afflicted grow erratic and almost irresponsible; they are unable to weigh properly the important affairs of life; they gabble strange words about little balls, holes, tees, clubs, bog-ies, birdies and eagles; they reach a condition of unbalancing tantamount to insanity; twitching of the hands and arms and the accompanying glassy stare of the eyes are symptoms that may alarm the court and the other jurors and interfere with the orderly and regular course of judicial procedure; the sufferer is no longer able to pass upon the rights of others in that calm and impartial manner which should actuate the ideal juror; the victim of 'golfitis' could not decide whether to send the defendant to the penitentiary or the insane asylum."

The petition contains 15 paragraphs, the last of which recites that the petitioner is by profession a dentist and, according to law, is released from jury service.

Judge Calvird took the matter under consideration, and after mature deliberation, delivered his ruling as follows:

"It is hereby ordered and adjudged that the petitioner be discharged from jury service on all the grounds stated except paragraph 15, to-wit: That he is a dentist, which the Court holds the evidence fails to sustain."

MEXICAN REVOLUTION CLAIMS
Total Now $250,000,000, and It May Go Higher.
Correspondence of the Associated Press.
MEXICO CITY, Sept. 7.—Claims for damages to foreign property resulting from the Mexican revolution, already filed with the National Claims Commission total more than $250,000,000, according to the commission's last report.

Should a revolutionary claims convention be adopted after resumption of diplomatic relations between the United States and Mexico, as proposed in the understanding reached at the prerecognition conference, this amount will be enormously increased, as numerous American and other foreign claims have not yet been filed with the national commission, but are held up for settlement through diplomatic channels.

POLICEMAN WHOM ROBBERS DISARMED KNOWN AS FIGHTER

John Fitzgibbon, Held at Bay by Youths Who Took $7212 Payroll, Once Killed Two Men.

TELLS HOW THEY GOT THE "DROP" ON HIM

Young Robber Who Took Weapon From Veteran Patrolman Wore Side-Burns; Shot Gave Him Courage.

It was a tall, thin youth with side-burns who took a policeman's revolver and got away with $7212 at the F. C. Church shoe factory yesterday afternoon. He was nervous at first but when his two companions urged him to "shoot the copper" and one of them fired a bullet into the floor to create terror, he became game, walked right up to the policeman, who was covered by the other robbers, and took his revolver from his holster.

The patrolman, who was thus disarmed and compelled to stand with his hands raised while the robbers gathered up the loot and backing out of the factory office was John Fitzgibbon, whose revolver carries two notches. He was known as one of the fighters of the police force and twelve years ago when he was walking one of the hardest beats in the Carr Street District he killed two men in a week.

Policeman Tells Story.
Patrolman Fitzgibbon, who is 58 years old and has been on the force since 1918, gave the following version of the holdup to a Post-Dispatch reporter:

"I accompanied Alphonse Heltkamp, treasurer of the shoe company, from the Boatmen's Bank in a taxicab to the shoe company's building at 2301 Benton street. It was the weekly payday at the factory and it was my work to guard the payroll. We reached the plant at 1:35 p. m.

"Heltkamp took the money from a canvas bag and threw it on his desk. Otto Nelson, a bookkeeper, came into the office to help put the money in pay envelopes. I stood at one end of the desk, facing the door. I thought at first they were employees. Two of them walked into the treasurer's office and the third remained at the door. All of a sudden I heard a command to 'Stick up,' and before I could reach my revolver I was covered.

"One of the kids—that's all they were—was walking toward me. I could see he was scared. Of course, I had my hands up and could do nothing. He thought I was the boss. He approached me. Then one of the robbers ordered me to turn around. I faced the wall, and as I did so I heard one of the robbers say, 'Shoot the copper,' and just then a shot was fired. I felt the revolver in my hand against my back. I thought my time had come. I knew the kid was nervous and I was afraid he'd shoot through fright, but he didn't. He just reached around my body and took my revolver from my holster which was at my abdomen. My coat was open.

"While my back was turned I heard one of the robbers say, 'Get the money.' It's beneath that bag. Those envelopes you took are empty.' Then there was silence. I turned around and the robbers were gone. Heltkamp and Nelson still had their hands in the air. The taxicab chauffeur was still in the outer office. I asked him why he had not chased the robbers, and he told me he had no revolver.

Miss Ruth Beatty, one of the clerks in the outer office, ran to a front window when the robbers were getting into an automobile and took the license number on the car. The machine, a Hudson speedster, was found later in an alley near Sarah street and Labadie avenue. It contained Patrolman Fitzgibbon's revolver and several rounds of shotgun shells and revolver cartridges. A sawed-off shotgun, said to have been thrown from an automobile, was found in the gutter in front of 3555 Labadie avenue.

Auto Stolen Sept. 6.
The automobile proved to be the property of Ralph E. Blodgett of 5330 Delmar boulevard, who had reported it stolen Sept. 6. The license, which had been substituted for the one issued to Blodgett, was stolen from James W. Sims of 4027 Peck street last May.

Clifton M. Cornish of 1618A Kaapp street, the taxicab chauffeur, went to police headquarters and viewed the rogue's gallery pictures during the afternoon and last night the police rounded up 13 suspects, but so far none has been identified.

About 12 years ago Patrolman Fitzgibbon distinguished himself by killing a burglar who tried to shoot him at Twelfth and Morgan streets. A few nights later he was called into a house on Morgan street where a negro was trying to kill a woman. The negro turned his revolver on Patrolman Fitzgibbon and the latter shot him dead.

POLICE ON 2-PLATOON DUTY DURING AIR MEET

Entire Force Will Be Upon Emergency Basis Oct.
1 to 4.

The festivities in connection with the International Air Races and the visit of the Velled Prophet next week constitute an "emergency" for the Police Department, which will require the full strength of the department to handle.

Such an "emergency" was declared to exist yesterday in orders by Chief of Police O'Brien following a conference with the heads of departments. The department was ordered to return to the 12-hour platoon system, commencing at 7 a. m. Oct. 1. Unless unforeseen emergencies occur, the department will return to the regular routine of the eight-hour, three-platoon system on Oct. 4.

All recreation days have been suspended, starting Sept. 29, until further notice.

The Chief also has ordered all available men at the district stations out for active duty, commencing Sept. 30. This leaves a Desk Sergeant, the clerks and telephone operators at each station.

The department will police the city and county roads leading to St. Louis Field at Bridgeton. The policing of the field itself will fall to soldiers from Jefferson Barracks.

Traffic regulations call for close attention, the Chief said, and the 200 men of the detective bureau will be stationed where crowds congregate to protect the valuables of visitors and others.

Roundups of suspected pickpockets and burglars will be ordered before next week.

The full strength of the police department is more than 1500 men. Of these about 750 will be on active duty in each 12-hour period.

DISCOVERIES OF ASIATIC LIFE TEN MILLION YEARS AGO MADE

New York Curator Says Work of Mongolian Expedition Is Biggest Step of Kind in History.

By the Associated Press.
NEW YORK, Sept. 26.—Reconstruction of Asiatic life in dinosaur times, ten million years ago, can be accomplished through the discoveries in Mongolia of the expedition of the American Museum of Natural History, which reported its finds from Peking yesterday. Curator Matthews of the museum said.

"This is the biggest paleontological discovery in history," said Matthews. "It doubles our knowledge. The expedition has evidently unearthed a vast new mass of data which will enable scientists to establish whether the dinosaur is the ancestor neons removed of the modern quadruped."

The expedition's discovery that the dinosaur laid eggs, the curator thought, was of minor importance. The expedition left New York a year ago and spent five months on the Mongolian plains.

BELGIUM WINS THE GORDON BENNETT BALLOON CUP

Pilot of Belgica, Which Landed in Sweden 600 Miles From Brussels, Covered Greatest Distance.

By the Associated Press.
BRUSSELS, Sept. 26.—The last balloon competing for the Gordon Bennett cup, the Belgian entry, Prince Leopold, piloted by Veenstra and Lieut. Quersin, has been accounted for.

The Prince Leopold landed at Mellerud, on Lake Vener, in Sweden. The distance traveled by the balloon was less than that covered by Demuyter in the Belgica, and Demuyter accordingly is the winner of the cup.

The Belgica landed Monday in the center of Sweden, after covering about 600 miles.

TAFT CONFERS WITH JUDGES

Progress in Clearing Dockets of Federal Courts Discussed.

By the Associated Press.
WASHINGTON, Sept. 26.—The condition of business in Federal courts throughout the country was discussed today at a conference presided over by Chief Justice Taft and attended by the various senior Federal Circuit Court Judges. The conference was held upon the call of Chief Justice Taft, each senior judge bringing with him a statement from each circuit judge in his circuit showing the results accomplished in the last year in the endeavor to clear dockets and expedite the trial of cases.

Under authority granted by Congress, Chief Justice Taft will make such temporary transfers of district judges as may be necessary to dispose of accumulated business in any district court.

BIDS FOR CULVERT HIGH

Lowest for Wabash Grade Crossing
Is $150,765.

The lowest bid for construction of a culvert over River des Peres at Delmar boulevard, as the first step toward elimination of the grade crossing of the Wabash Railway there, received in a second letting yesterday, was $150,765.50. This bid, submitted by Harry Henske, was about $20,000 higher than the low bid of the Fruin-Colson Construction Co. in the first letting, Aug. 21.

The Fruin-Colson company had specified that it would not undertake the work unless the city and the Wabash agreed as to payment, and its bid later was rejected. The four other bids received yesterday ran up to $205,980. The Board of Public Service may accept the lowest or any of the bids.

PREDICTS CUT IN RAIL RATES

U. P. Official Says Outlook for Roads Is Encouraging.

By the Associated Press.

LAWRENCE, Kan., Sept. 25.—The outlook for the railroads is encouraging, Nelson H. Loomis of Omaha, general counsel of the Union Pacific Railroad, said in speaking before the convocation of Kansas University students. Time is all that is necessary for the complete rehabilitation of the roads and reduction of rates, he added.

"After the war conditions and strikes prevented the railroads getting the benefit of the Eech-Cummings act until the later months of 1922," Loomis declared. "This year, thanks to the efforts of the railroad executives, traffic is being handled without delay, and if there is only time given for the act to be put into force, it will be possible for the Interstate Commerce Commission to reduce rates without danger of impairing the railroad properties."

MRS. STOKES MAKES ADDITIONAL CHARGES

Says Husband Tried to Make It Appear Baby She Was Pictured Holding Was Mulatto.

By the Associated Press.

CHICAGO, Sept. 25.—More photographs which her husband, W. E. D. Stokes of New York, and his agents, are alleged to have used in what Helen Elwood Stokes charges was a plot to blacken her reputation in connection with their divorce contest, are identified by Mrs. Stokes as pictures of herself.

One letter, alleged by officials to have been written by Stokes to a private detective in his employ here, inclosed a photograph which the writer described as "Mrs. Stokes in a chair with a mulatto baby in her lap." This was only one of the series of photographs and letters which Mrs. Stokes charges were part of a conspiracy to make it appear that she once was an inmate of a resort in the Chicago vice district.

"In Mr. Stokes' picture," Mrs. Stokes said in the office of her attorney, "the baby appears dark because of poor printing. It was taken in the home of my sister, Mrs. Raymond Sargent, 181 Franklin street, Denver. The baby is hers."

There was another picture showing a young girl riding on a man's shoulders like a child playing horse. Stokes' letters to his detective are alleged to have said this was a picture of his wife and "Tex Ricard or a fellow named Meyers."

Mrs. Stokes said the picture was taken when she was a young girl romping with family friends. She never had met Ricard, she added.

HYGIENE COMMISSION MAKES REPORT ON ITS SURVEY HERE

States It Found 262 Disorderly
Houses and Declares Stricter Laws Are Needed.

A commission sent to St. Louis some time ago by the American Society of Social Hygiene reported discovery of 262 disorderly houses here, Charles E. Miner, newly appointed secretary of the Missouri Social Hygiene Association, told members of the Community Council at Vanderboer's Auditorium yesterday.

Of this number 49 places were running openly as disorderly houses, 14 were hotels and 18 of the remainder were boarding houses. Members of the commission stated they found 55 such places on Olive street between 1300 and 1400; 25 on Pine street between 1300 and 1400; 18 on Delmar boulevard between 4100 and 5600, 9 on Washington avenue between 1500 and 4500, and 23 on Market street.

Miner gave it as his opinion that between 42,000 and 45,000 residents of St. Louis are suffering from venereal disease.

In commenting on conditions here, he declared that taxicab chauffeurs and bellboys in the cheaper motels acted as go-betweens. Stricter laws are needed, he said.

Facilities for fighting disease here are very good, the speaker remarked. He plans a closer co-ordination of the various forces working for social hygiene.

NEW YORK PAPERS SAY PRESS
FORCES ARE NEARING NORMAL

Out-of-Town Workers Said to Be Filling Places of Strikers.

By the Associated Press.

NEW YORK, Sept. 25.—Following the announcement of George L. Berry, president of the International Pressmen's and Assistant's Union, that "a strike never has been won in America" against newspapers when such strikes have been inaugurated in violation of contracts or in face of a tender of conciliation by publishers, the publishers of New York's dailies announced today that conditions in their pressrooms were nearing normal and that many out-of-town pressmen were arriving to take the places of strikers.

Spokesmen for the publishers' association, which signed an agreement under which the international was to man the presses, announced that enough men had arrived, or were en route, to end the strike as far as the employers were concerned. They said it had not been determined when the combined morning and afternoon editions would resume their individual makeups.

Representatives of the local union, which was declared dissolved after the international's directors had held the walkout illegal, denied that any substantial number of competent pressmen was arriving, asserting they had assurances from 22 of the 32 locals in other cities that their members would remain away from the metropolis.

SOEDERBLOOM IN U. S. FOR TOUR

By the Associated Press.

NEW YORK, Sept. 25.—Archbishop Nathan Soederbloom, primate of the Church of Sweden, arrived here yesterday on the Swedish-American Liner Drottningholm. He will begin a lecture tour of two months at City College, Friday, under auspices of the Federated Council of Churches of Christ in America, the Christian Unity Federation, the Augustana Synod of Lutheran Churches and the American-Scandinavian Foundation.

He comes not only to lecture, but to aid the Swedish Church in the United States to promote Christian unity and to help secure peace through the churches and to make an intensive study of prohibition. The archbishop said the United States "accomplished an act of heroism in introducing prohibition." He pointed out that the liquor question differs in all countries and that in Sweden, although the saloon was abolished 50 years ago, alcoholic beverages are allowed under a communal system of distribution.

"OAK STAIN" SEIZED BY POLICE
Five 50-Gallon Barrels of It at Omaha Full of Alcohol.

By the Associated Press.
OMAHA, Neb., Sept. 26.—Five 50-gallon barrels, labeled "oak stain," which arrived in Omaha by rail from Chicago, contained pure alcohol, according to Police Commissioner Butler, who made this assertion after the police had seized them. They were consigned to the "Mid-West Lumber Co." from the Contractors Supply Co. of Chicago.

EFFORT TO PREVENT
U. R. BOND EXTENSION

Suburban Holders Appear Before Public Service Body—Matter Under Advisement.

JEFFERSON CITY, Sept. 26.—Holders of bonds of the St. Louis & Suburban Railway Co. today asked the Missouri Public Service Commission to block extension of $4,100,000 of underlying bond issues of the United Railways Co. in an effort to force a reorganization of that property, which is now in the hands of a receiver.

Sam B. Jeffries, who, with Marion C. Early, represents a committee of the Suburban bondholders, told the commission that if extension of bonds of the Lindell Railway, Cass Avenue and Fairgrounds Railway Co. and the Compton Heights, Union Depot & Merchants' Terminal Co. were not permitted by the commission, foreclosure suits would be instituted at once and a reorganization would be forced.

Nature of the Hearing.
Rolla Wells, receiver, and Charles W. Bates, his attorney, were before the commission today asking for authority to issue $4,200,000 of receiver's certificates to take up outstanding certificates which will become due next Monday and to extend $4,100,000 of bonds of the three underlying issues set out, which also mature on the same day.

A banking syndicate formed by the Bankers' Trust Co. of New York has offered to take the receiver's certificates under terms which would mean 8 per cent net to the receiver, an increase of 1 per cent, while the North American Co. of New York, owner of the Union Electric Light and Power Co. in St. Louis and holder of a majority of the common stock of the United Railways, made the only bid for the bond extension at a net price of 7 per cent. Both arrangements would be for three years, with the extended bonds eligible for call April 1 or Oct. 1 of any year of their pendency.

Object of Bond Extension.
Holders of the suburban bonds, $4,500,000 of which became due last April and which have not been paid, and $2,000,000 of which become due next Monday, object to extension of the other bonds unless the securities are provided for. Morton Jourdan, counsel in St. Louis for the North American Co., said that his client had only decided within two hours prior to close of the time for receiving bids on the bond extension to make a bid, and then only to help out the situation, not as an investment proposition.

The commission took the matter under advisement.

UNION PLASTERERS RESUME WORK ON 3 BUILDING PROJECTS

New St. Mary's and Shriners' Hospitals and Bellefontaine School Structure to Proceed.

Union plasterers, who have refused to work on three large building projects through sympathy for metal workers in the jurisdictional dispute with carpenters over metal trim work, returned to work on those jobs following an agreement yesterday with three construction companies, resulting in dismissal of injunction suits against the plasterers.

The projects affected are the new St. Mary's Hospital, the Bellefontaine Training School for Feeble-Minded Children and the Shriners' Hospital for Crippled Children. About 60 men are affected. Maurice J. Cassidy, secretary of the Building Trades Council, said that the contractors had made the offer accepted by the plasterers to the Building Trades Council, but that the latter had declined to terminate its strike until the contractors recognize the award of metal trim work to metal workers.

MACREADY TO TRY TO REGAIN RECORD FOR ALTITUDE FLIGHT

New Oxygen Supercharger Invented for Use on Engine at Great Heights.

By the Associated Press.
SCHENECTADY, N. Y., Sept. 26.—With the aid of a new invention that it is said will add 250 horsepower to his motor, Lieut. John MacReady will try, probably next month, to regain the world's altitude record which he lost recently to Sadi Lecoq, French aviator.

Announcement that MacReady would attempt to better Lecoq's 25,175 feet was made by the General Electric Co., simultaneously with announcement of perfection of the invention by Dr. S. A. Moss of its staff. Dr. Moss has just completed a turbine supercharger that can feed sea level atmospheric pressure to an engine at 25,000 feet altitude.

The new supercharger, or "engine oxygen booster," weighs 140 pounds. Lieut. MacReady used one, half the capacity of the new one, in establishing the record of 24,500 feet that Lecoq broke.

Suffocated When Ditch Caves In.

By the Associated Press.
KANSAS CITY, Mo., Sept. 26.—Clarence S. Marsh, 48 years old, a carpenter, was suffocated here last night beneath earth which fell into a ditch which he was digging at his home for a sewer. His daughter, Elaine, 14, heard him shout but was unable to find him and attached no significance to the cries. A neighbor also heard him, and believing that Marsh was buried beneath earth in the ditch, called a city ambulance. Frantic digging for two hours was required to exhume Marsh's body.

Secondhand Play Troupes.

To the Editor of the Post-Dispatch.
I THINK that an injustice is being done to the theater-going public of St. Louis. What I refer to is the fact that various shows are misrepresented in the newspaper advertisements. To give a specific example of what I mean, I shall cite the play which was recently showing at the Shubert-Jefferson Theater, namely, "The Cat and the Canary."

This play is well known, not only in America, but also in Europe and England. It enjoys a very good reputation and is a big attraction wherever it plays. But there is a catch to this. All of the complimentary statements I have just made concern the original company, which has traveled in Europe, England and the United States. Well, when I say United States, I must qualify this statement by saying at least New York and its neighboring cities. The original company that made the play an international institution will not venture, like many other good companies, to come West, especially St. Louis.

Shrewd managers take advantage of this condition (refusal of star actors to play West) and by setting up a second-hand troupe of players, seek to defraud the people by exploiting the success of the original company. The cast playing at the Shubert-Jefferson was assembled at Chicago, according to the statements made by the dramatic critic of the Post-Dispatch.

This is not only true of "The Cat and the Canary." Other big attractions do the same thing year after year and something should be done to prohibit such outrages. It is a wonder that St. Louis is known as a "peer show town." Give us genuine attractions and we will pack your houses.

A Testimonial.

To the Editor of the Post-Dispatch.
THE Ku Klux Klan invaded our peaceful little village Sept. 13 at night and made a direct attack on the Catholics and colored people. The speaker said the St. Louis Post-Dispatch was the worst enemy the Klan had. That shows that you are doing some good in bringing this gang of peace disturbers before the eyes of the public.

CITIZEN.

Willing to Pay for Roads.

To the Editor of the Post-Dispatch.
OWNERS will approve any reasonable increase in taxes on motor cars if the money thus obtained is spent improving roads. I must ride 10,000 miles over Missouri roads every year. I would gladly pay $100 a year for five years to expedite the road building in Missouri. It will save me $1000 spent on ruined cars, tires, extra gasoline, oil and time.

Before motorists agree to pay extra taxes it will be wise for them to ask some concessions such as immediate grading of the Ozark Trail from St. Louis on the east and from Kansas City, etc., on the west. The Ozark counties need development and money more than any other section of the State. Conditions of the Ozark highway out of St. Louis have diverted $10,000,000 out of the Ozarks into Illinois and the Great Lakes region in the past two years. St. Louisans desire to do the Ozarks, but the road out of St. Louis and as far as Mountain Grove is so bad as to deter them. Cross-country tourists are also diverted out of the State and out of the Ozarks.

Bad roads, "the worst and only bad roads," tourists call them, have given Missouri a dog's name in the mouths of Americans.

Let us get done with them. As a car owner I will profit me to take a 1000 per cent increase in motor taxes, but I want something for my money. I want to get on a good, or fair, graded road with assurance of being able to get over it. The fact that each county may have three to 10 or 20 miles of concrete means nothing to a driver, if there is an impassable sea of mud between.

That part of the law which provides that construction shall begin in each county at the same time is ridiculous, useless to the counties, adds enormously to costs, and hurts the Ozark counties east of Benton and Hickory about $5,000,000 a year. Also abolish the only toll roads in the United States, those in Pike County.

A MISSOURI MUD LARK.

Selfish Parkers.

To the Editor of the Post-Dispatch.
WHY do some owners of closed cars put on their brakes and lock the doors when parking in congested districts?

With the scarcity of parking space existing today it would be less selfish for them to leave brakes in neutral or off, so, necessary, their car could be moved a foot or two, which often helps to make enough parking space for others.

THE REACTION AGAINST DEMOCRACY.

The reaction against democracy, as discussed by Lloyd George in the Sunday Post-Dispatch, is a recapitulation of Europe's post-war history. The spread of the movement which originated in Russia, includes Italy, Bulgaria, Spain and seriously threatens Germany. As the former British Premier makes clear, bolshevism and fascism are identical in the vital respect of dissatisfaction with parliamentary government. Lenin may pretend and seriously believe himself the spokesman of the proletariat and Mussolini may stand for the power of property, but, in actual practice, both are dictators and rule by the ineluctable methods of tyranny.

Despite the welter of contradictions that has come out of Russia, we know what has happened there. The individual has been disfranchised. He has no voice in the Government. The dignity of personal responsibility has been destroyed. Italy is a transcript of Russia's story. The tragedy of Italy—and it is a tragedy, indeed—was brilliantly told in another article in the Sunday Post-Dispatch by a staff correspondent. There is no longer any laughter in Italy; its voluble, singing people speak in whispers; its gay, insouciant press has been devitalized; the moral serfdom of the nation is every bit as gloomy and desolate as is the economic and civic slavery of Russia.

Lloyd George, in his survey of Europe, thrusts back historically to say that Cromwell was the first modern Fascist. And the burial of happiness in Russia and Italy under the Cromwellian revival recalls another historian's judgment: "Oliver Cromwell entered the University of Cambridge the day that Shakespeare died. On that day Puritan England was born and 'merrie England' passed away."

All this is significant to thoughtful Americans. The reaction against democracy is not confined to Europe. It is ablaze in the United States. And our Fascists are a good deal more powerful and more dangerous than are our bolsheviks. Our Ku Klux Klan is fascism rampant. Ku Kluxism is the philosophy of the Antislavery League flowering in direct action. The logical relationship of the two is that of parent and child. Both are an expression of dissatisfaction with democracy, with parliamentary government and the substitution of tyrannical power over the individual.

Is democracy to go down under the onslaught of these various forces? Not permanently. Tyranny can't endure. Whatever its motive tyranny is opportunism. Unless men and women are to lose their individuality and to be numbered as convicts in a penitentiary democracy must prevail. But democracy, we are observing, is not a miraculous contrivance that goes on functioning without attention or care. It has to be looked after. In other words, a self-governing people cannot turn over the management of its public affairs to applicants for the positions by perfunctory supporting a party label. A real democracy exacts from its people the toll of participating actively and intelligently in the selection of public officials.

That is a lesson which certain European peoples have yet to learn. It is a lesson which the American people, having forgotten, must relearn.

REASON IN LABOR DISPUTES.

Because of the sudden, unwarranted and unreasonable strike of the local New York pressmen's union, the newspapers of New York have been damaged hundreds of thousands of dollars, the public has been put to great loss and inconvenience, retail business has suffered great injury and the strikers have been outlawed by the international union.

The strike is broken, but the mischief has been done and cannot be undone. It should be a lesson to organized labor everywhere. A strike of this kind does more to discredit the principle of collective bargaining than any dispute in which the workers act within reason and in accordance with their own protestations of right.

It was the more extraordinary and unfortunate because, at the recent meeting of the Southern Newspaper Publishers' Association, Maj. George L. Berry, president of the International Pressmen's Union, had announced that "the International Printing Pressmen and Assistants' Union of North America is the only trade union that at this moment holds an arbitration contract with the American Newspaper Publishers' Association. We have elected to meet with the newspaper publishers of America upon the basis of fact and to join in the determination of the equities of the business in accordance with American traditions."

The pressmen, as a body, are and have been strongly in favor of arbitration and the adjustment of disputes without striking. President Berry very strongly emphasized this at the meeting. The precipitate action of the local union suggests that that body had been "bored into from within" by a lot of extreme radicals, to whom President Berry's businesslike attitude was in the nature of what they would call "bourgeois betrayal" of labor's interests. The New York pressmen may be thankful that the facts of the case have proved that the success of these radicals and their doctrines would ruin the newspaper industry, including themselves.

IF WALTON IS IMPEACHED.

Commenting on the Oklahoma situation the Springfield (Mass.) Republican suggests that "with all due respect to the Governor's determination and laudable purpose, impeachment may be a good way out of the mess. It would at least have a chance of throwing light into the dark places that have so far seemed inaccessible."

But Gov. Walton's fight, whatever its motives and mistakes, is throwing a flood of light on dark places. The testimony before the military courts, which must be presumed to be reasonably accurate, is a terrible indictment against the Klan and against the indolence or unfaithfulness of public officials charged with enforcing the law. The impeachment of Gov. Walton, or his removal from office, will not solve Oklahoma's problem. Might it not, on the contrary, very seriously aggravate the situation? Would not such action be construed as a Klan victory and would it not encourage that organization to resume its vicious activities on a bolder, bigger scale?

The military court's investigation at Tulsa has shown 121 cases of personal violence in that district, without any effort by the constituted authorities to prosecute the perpetrators of the outrages. The conditions in other parts of Oklahoma are not yet known, but they must be known. If the Governor's exposure is halted the obligation of continuing the work he has undertaken will remain. If the Legislature, at the behest of the newspaper publishers, impeach and remove the Governor then the Legislature and the newspaper publishers will have to complete the Governor's unfinished task. Will they? If they do not the people of Oklahoma must rise in their might and scotch the hooded snake of Ku Kluxism.

FUTURE OF AVIATION IN MISSOURI.

A writer in the October number of Aviation, the excellent monthly issued by the Automobile Club of Missouri, points out that this State has 90 landing fields for airplanes, classed as commercial, municipal and emergency fields. There are six municipal fields, those at St. Louis and Kansas City having hangars and all other equipment needed for a full aviation service. The other municipal fields and the commercial fields have gas and oil stations.

This is a beginning. But how far it still is from the ideal may be seen from the fact that in France landing fields of some sort are only eight miles apart. There are three classes of fields, class A, 35 miles apart, having hangars, machine shops and all other necessary equipment. Class B fields, 25 miles apart, are good aerial stations. Class C, known as emergency fields, are smaller, and are leased from farmers, who are permitted to use them for crops that will not interfere with planes landing or taking off.

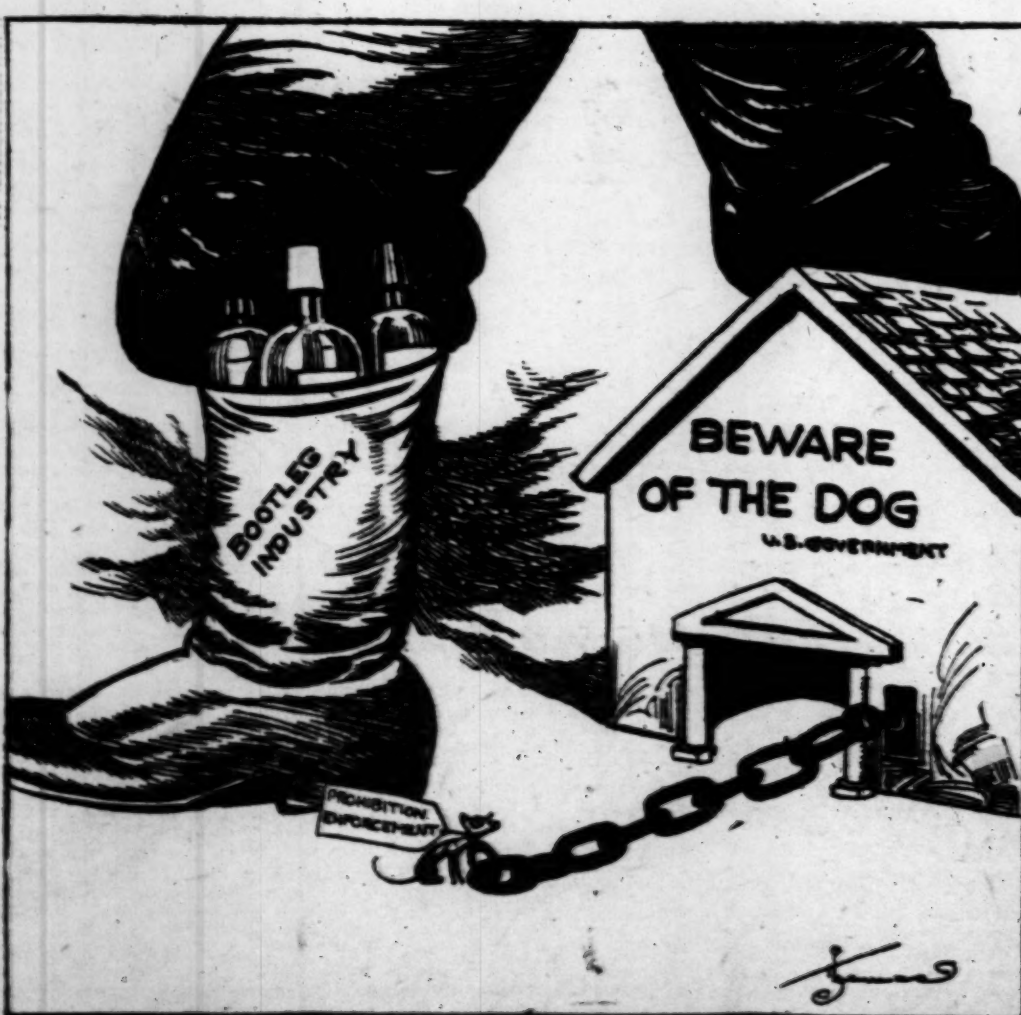

"Because a plane can fly a distance equal to seven times its height," says the writer, "and because machines on cross-country flights usually travel at great heights, it is possible for ships in France almost always to be able to reach an emergency field when trouble develops in the air."

Aviation has come to stay, and Missouri is now developing as an aviation center. Its principal aviation fields will have to be utilized in the near future by scores if not hundreds of planes traveling to or from every point in the compass. The 90 fields already existing must be increased at least tenfold in number and many times in the matter of equipment, if the State is to do its full share in the development of this modern means of travel, traffic and national defense.

About all Oklahoma needs now to complete the picture is a first-class earthquake.

MEANING OF BEAUTY.

A REVIEWER in "Brentano's Book Chat" commends Dr. Percy Stickney Grant's book, "The Religion of Main Street," as "an honest and forceful book." Apparently Dr. Grant has appealed to the sense of beauty as one of the bases for religious belief. The writer says:

"I have listened to great argument of sage from Pythagoras to Herbert Spencer, and found in their speculations on divinity but excuse to go out by the same door wherein I went. I believe there is no more rational proof of the presence of a Supreme Creator than the sight of flowers. To a sensible man the pansy, the violet, or the rose are 'proof sufficient of Divinity.' Flowers express the supremacy of man's visions; he may imagine demons fouler than saurians, but no angels lovelier than flowers. They are our poetry, our symbolism, our dream of heaven. The supreme dramatic sense of Shakespeare failed him once, at that tense moment when the drowning of Ophelia is announced, and where three words would have given emphasis to the tragedy, the poet sang a floral threnody. Not drama, but high poetry, and a noble failure."

The reader is invited to look up the passage in Shakespeare's play in which the immortal bard "sang a floral threnody" on the death of Ophelia. It seems that flowers, even in Shakespeare's day, were naturally associated with death. We instinctively turn to what is beautiful to allay our grief on the occasion of so apparently ugly a fact as mortality.

But has beauty, in itself, a meaning, apart from the fact that it pleases our spirit? I was going to say our senses, but these are mere gateways to the spirit. Sang Keats: A thing of beauty is a joy forever; Its loveliness increases; it will never Pass into nothingness. . . . And, after citing various objects of beauty—sun, moon, trees, etc., he concludes his stanza with a reference to flowers: . . . and such are daffodils. With the green world they live in. I myself, long ago, when, transported with the beauty of nature, I felt a religious thrill at the thought of floral loveliness, concluded a verse on the work of creation with the lines The flowers were all superfluous. Beauty was no necessity. Oh, recognize His love in us Who loved you from eternity. To the scientist, devoted solely to use, this is nonsense. But so to such an one is beauty itself. Whittier was no scientist. He sang: Oh Beauty, old yet ever new! Eternal Voice and Inward Word. And again Keats: When old age shall this generation waste, Thou shalt remain, in midst of other woe Than ours, a friend to man, to whom thou say'st, 'Beauty is truth, truth beauty'—that is all. Ye know on earth, and all ye need to know.

That grim, thoroughgoing agnostic scientist Ernst Haeckel, speaking of personal beauty, asserted that "beauty is but the echo of old lusts." Suppose he had expressed it otherwise, as, for example, "beauty is the natural result of love, which glorifies its object." But in that case he would have been something of a poet.

To our mind the existence of beauty appears to be proof that love preceded it. Why call it lust? There were no visible flowers in the far away prehistoric ages, before man appeared on earth. Only the cryptogamous vegetation with its spongy beauty, no lovely correlation with its spongy beauty, no lovely correlation with its spongy beauty, no lovely correlation with its spongy beauty.

las or petals, no variety of color. As soon as the earth was ready for the appreciation of beauty, by man, flowers, in all their glory, appeared.

BANANA BANALITIES.

"Yes, we have no bandannas today," chirped the ampy young salesgirl at the handkerchief counter.

It is an undeniable fact that the banana song is being peeled forth from thousands of throats.

Also it is another undeniable fact that the aforementioned ba-nanny song is getting our nanny, too.

Fellow who wrote, or rather committed, the song, made $51,000 out of it in royalties.

Proving that their efforts were not exactly fruitless.

California fruit growers declare that since the song was inflicted upon the public, the consumption of bananas has increased 20 per cent. Darn good thing nobody wrote anything about garlic.

At that, however, a spate about the aromatic garlic would, we believe, go pretty strong, and would not exactly be scentless.

Music store in New York gave out a couple of bananas with every copy of the song. Proving that their efforts were not exactly fruitless.

To get back to bananas, they aren't the only things we haven't got. Neither have we any buttons on our shirts, coal in our cellars, something passable to drink or the kale with which to neutralize our income tax.

A fellow we know says it's a darn good thing they didn't have any bananas at the grocer's. Says it prevented his wife from baking one of them deadly so-called banana cakes of hers.

And it's a cinch the cake would have been very much heavier than the music to the banana song, eh, wet?

NEWSPAPER ADVERTISING.

From the Louisville Courier-Journal.

THE prospect of the settlement of the New York pressmen's strike is received by the advertisers with rejoicing. The dwarf combination paper which the New York dailies have been getting out during the strike affords scant space for advertising, what little there is being taken up mainly by the small amusement advertisements.

As a consequence business has seriously suffered, the bad effects, according to an Associated Press dispatch, being reflected in all branches of finance, commerce and industry. Even the street, which has been somewhat skeptical as to the value of the little advertising it did, has discovered its mistake, now realizing how much its customers depend on newspaper advertising for their information on the things in which it is interested.

Several big offerings of bonds, and the dispatch, which were to be put out during the week, have been held off because of the lack of advertising space. The department stores, notably hard hit. Their managers complain the inability to promote sales through the newspapers is felt as a serious handicap at the opening of the fall season.

"Stores depending on special sales were most seriously affected. Nearly all the leading department stores began printing circulars for distribution among persons entering their establishments and for their mailing lists. Their executives, however, found the handicap lacking anything like the pulling power of space in the newspapers."

The New York advertisers would not be advertisers if they were not convinced of the advantages of advertising. The strike has forced upon them such a realization as they have not had before of the disadvantages of not advertising.

DEMOCRACY IN LATIN AMERICA.

MARY WILHELMINE WILLIAMS in the American Review.

IN most of the Hispanic American countries much more rapid growth in political democracy may be expected in the near future than has been witnessed in the past. The increased interest with autocratic rule resulting from the war helps to offer assurance of this, as does the improvement in educational facilities, and the wise the healthy spirit of self-criticism that is most of the states—a spirit never entirely lacking, but much augmented during recent years. The influence of young men and women returning to their own lands after studying in the United States. The persistent, growing idealism of the people is, however, the best guarantee for the realization of true democracy and public opinion in Hispanic America.

SUPPRESSION OF CRIME.

ZACHARIAH CHAFFEE in the New Republic.

CHARLES I. wanted taxes without paying them, and the Star Chamber was instituted to suppress crime without a jury. The government's policy thereby secured was not adequately predicted by the people at large. The use of the institution to put men in prison without a trial for reasons that seem insufficient to justify a punishment that may eventually be removed away some judicial power that had been preserved along with what can be termed the idealism of the people is, however, the best guarantee for the realization of true democracy and public opinion in Hispanic America.

NEW ARRANGEMENT OF COLISEUM FOR PROPHET'S VISIT

Departures in Decoration and Lighting and Presence of Air Meet Visitors to Create New Scene.

WHITE AND GOLD TO BE COLOR SCHEME
Throne of City's Patron Will Be Higher, and Ballet Dancers Will Appear on Raised Stage.

New schemes of arrangement of the Coliseum are being installed for the annual gala appearance next Tuesday night of the benign patron of the city's beauty and chivalry, the Veiled Prophet. There will be decorations in the way of decoration and lighting.

The combination of these things and the presence of many distinguished visitors, here for the International Air Meet, of whom a considerable number will be in bright military or diplomatic array, is expected to create a scene not a little different from that of former years.

As usual, guests with tickets entitling them to admission to the Coliseum will be seated in the balcony and the promenade of the main floor will be reserved for wear formal evening attire. The committee points out, however, that the Coliseum will be decorated with white and gold, and that the Coliseum will be decorated with white and gold, and that the Coliseum will be decorated with white and gold.

Guests with gallery tickets will not be required to wear evening clothes, but will be asked to remove their hats and wraps upon entering the Coliseum, and not to be allowed on the dance floor. Tickets of the two kinds are now interchangeable.

Details as to traffic arrangements and entrance doors, which are much the same as in past years, have been sent out with the invitations. Doors will be open at 7 p. m. for the gallery and at 8 p. m. for the remainder of the building.

Many workmen are engaged transforming the interior of the Coliseum into a ballroom. They are building the Veiled Prophet's throne higher than formerly, to give a better view of the coronation of the Queen of Law and Beauty, whose identity will not be known until hundreds of thousands see her upon her triumphal entry.

A raised stage in front of the grand dais will be used for the ballroom. The dwarf combination dais will be used for the ballroom. The dwarf combination dais will be used for the ballroom.

The color scheme of the decorations will be white and gold, and that the Coliseum will be decorated with white and gold, and that the Coliseum will be decorated with white and gold.

President considers relief for the wheat farmers.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 26.—Various proposals for prompt relief of the country's wheat farmers were given earnest consideration yesterday by President Coolidge and his cabinet. Further study and information on the subject, however, was decided on before any definite action is taken by the government.

Secretary Wallace laid before the cabinet a report on the wheat situation at home and abroad, suggested a 25 per cent reduction in freight rates and the establishment by the government of an agricultural export commission or corporation with broad powers.

It was also suggested that tariff on wheat be increased to 45 cents a bushel, but both proposals to lower freight rates and increase tariff duties contained therein features which were said to have brought some objection by administration officials.

Secretary Wallace declared he had little faith in the efficacy of arbitrary price-fixing of any one crop, because even if it could afford temporary help it would almost certainly make conditions worse for the farmer. The buying and holding of a large part of the surplus wheat or any other crop might be of temporary benefit, he said, but unless prices were kept from falling, the government would be forced to control the market.

In such an American exporters of agricultural products find themselves at a disadvantage in dealing with foreign countries because exchange rates favor foreign competitors. Wallace believed they should be helped by a government agency which would establish easier credit conditions on American purchases.

"NIFTIES OF 1923" HUMBLE LITTLE SHOW

Comedy Drags With One Brilliant Exception in Sketch "Keep Off the Grass."

By HEYWOOD BROWN,
Dramatic Editor of the New York World.

NEW YORK, Sept. 26.—"Nifties of 1923" at the Fulton Theater is far and away the feeblest of current revues. It is rather a humble little show and it should be for the music is meager, the settings and costumes ordinary and with one brilliant exception, the comedy drag. Only in the sketch called "Keep Off the Grass" has William Collier come up to his own standards. This knock-out playlet of a pessimist on a picnic is great fun. It has humor of line and in addition the altogether hilarious clowning of Ray Dooley.

Concerning almost everything else in the show indifference is easy. Sam Bernard doesn't seem funny. Van and Schenk don't seem to be singing and Frank Crumit is a bore. There is a burlesque of "Rain" and a symbolic ballet, "Unfaithful to Orchid." Buttery is attracted to the Flame and is scorched while Orchid flutters off with another butterfly.

In fact "Nifties of 1923" is utterly conventional in its intent and departs from the set standards only in doing the familiar things a little worse than usual.

DR. JONES TO COMPLETE DRIVE FOR MISSOURI U. MEMORIAL

Accepts Chairmanship of Committee Seeking to Raise $500,000 Within a Year.

COLUMBIA, Mo., Sept. 26.—Dr. John Carlton Jones, president emeritus of the University of Missouri, has accepted the chairmanship of the University of Missouri Memorial Union building campaign, according to an announcement by Dr. Stratton D. Brooks, president of the university.

The board of curators of the university and the Memorial Union Building Committee, as well as alumni all over the country, requested that Dr. Jones take active charge of the campaign to raise funds for the memorial dedicated to the students who lost their lives in the war. Dr. Jones has been considering the request of the board of curators and the Memorial Union Building Committee for several weeks. He is doing this work without compensation. It is his plan to wind up the campaign within a year.

The Memorial Union Building will include a memorial tower with a wing on either side, the whole to be on the white campus. Already the foundation for the tower has been laid, and steps will be taken immediately to start the construction of the tower. The memorial campaign has been carried on approximately three years, and the alumni and friends of the university are enthusiastic over Dr. Jones' acceptance and his announcement that he will conclude the campaign within 12 months. The campaign calls for a subscription of $500,000.

FUGITIVE FROM MISSOURI CAUGHT

Gore, Who Leaped From Train While Handcuffed, Held in Arkansas.

Special to the Post-Dispatch.
POPULAR BLUFF, Mo., Sept. 23.—Landro Gore, burglar and parole violator, who several months ago, while handcuffed, leaped from a Missouri Pacific passenger train as it stopped at Hoxie, escaping from D. W. Carter, former Chief of Police here, has been arrested at McClellenspur, Ark., and Deputy Sheriff Wilson left this afternoon to bring him here.

Gore, in July, 1921, pleaded guilty to burglary and was given a two-year sentence in the penitentiary. Shortly afterwards he was paroled. He was arrested Aug. 5 at McClellenspur, Woodruff County, Ark., charged with burglary. The case against him went to trial Monday and he was acquitted. He, however, was not released, as it was known he was wanted in Poplar Bluff.

NEW U. S. SEAPLANE FOR RACE

Craft to Be Substituted for Wrecked Machine, Giving America 3 Entries.

PORTSMOUTH, Eng., Sept. 23.—The American reserve seaplane piloted by Lieut. Frank W. Wood, will be substituted in the Schneider cup race for seaplanes on Sept. 23 for the plane wrecked yesterday near here during a trial flight. America will thus be represented by three machines, the original number, but the chances of England retaining the cup are regarded by the experts as greatly increased owing to the fact that the wrecked plane was America's most powerful entry. It was said to be capable of making 170 miles an hour. This plane admittedly outclassed the two remaining American entries.

Lieut. A. Worthington Gorton, who was piloting the American plane alone at the time of the accident, clung to the wreckage for more than an hour before he was rescued. He had completely recovered today from the effects of his experiment. The seaplane has been beached at South Sea, but it will be impossible to repair it in time for the race.

DECLARES WARD
BLACKMAIL SECRET
WON'T BE REVEALED

Counsel Says It Was to Prevent Disclosure That Wards Were Not Called as Witnesses.

DEFENSE RESTS ON STATE'S EVIDENCE

Charge Made That Peters, the Slain Man, Hired Out as Gunman to Blackmailing Accomplices.

By the Associated Press.
WHITE PLAINS, N. Y., Sept. 23.—A surprise equal to that of yesterday, when the State abruptly ended its prosecution, came today at the trial of Walter S. Ward, charged with murdering Clarence Peters of Haverhill, Mass., when the defense announced that it rested its case without submitting any testimony.

After announcing that the defense rested, Isaac N. Mills, chief counsel for the defense, renewed his motion that the indictment be dismissed and the jury be instructed to return a verdict of acquittal, but Justice Wagner again denied the motion. Mills then began the argument for the defense.

Hardly had the chief of the defense counsel begun his address to the jury when Attorney-General Sherman objected to his statements and Justice Wagner ordered Mills to refrain from all comment and to keep to the evidence.

"We are at the beginning of the end," Mills had begun, "and I have to tell you that I have the most profound satisfaction that my client has come to the bar of justice this way, prosecuted by the State, and that he is emerging in this way."

"One of my first satisfactions is in finding nothing in the People's case that was not there before. Cards have been laid out and I have counted them all. They are dog-eared and torn. I have had them before." Mills went on to say that he had been an attorney 11 years and that he was surprised that Attorney Sherman had revealed "nothing new," and that in the examination of former District Attorney Weeks it was shown that all the witnesses in this case were the same ones who had testified before the first grand jury that indicted Ward.

Alleges Unfair Methods.
 The first hour Mills devoted to an arraignment of the methods used by the prosecution, which, he said, presented its case unfairly and unjustly. Charging that witnesses for the State had been improperly coached, he pointed out that 72 witnesses were heard by the grand jury while only 32 were called before the trial jury. The prosecution, Mills asserted, did not dare to call the other witnesses because their testimony would have been riddled by cross-examination.

He said that the secret of the blackmail which caused Ward to kill Clarence Peters never would be revealed. To prevent such a disclosure, he said, he had refrained from calling members of the Ward family to the witness stand.

Assails Calling of Wife.
 Turning to Mrs. Ward, who had been sitting beside Ralph Ward, brother of the accused, he called upon the jury to observe the effect which the strain of the proceedings had had upon her.

Exhibiting to the courtroom a large photograph of Mrs. Ward, apparently taken before the slaying of Peters, he called upon all those present to compare the youthful, fresh faced woman in the photograph with the bowed, worn figure that sat sobbing at the defense counsel table.

"By the side of my client," Mills continued, "his loyal and devoted wife, has sat throughout the proceedings. She has stuck to him through trials and tribulations as well as in prosperity. You can see her face is worn with grief from this persecution of 15 months."

As the defense counsel pointed to her, Mrs. Ward sobbed unrestrainedly, her body shaking convulsively. Ralph Ward put his arm over the back of her chair and whispered to her.

Mills then made a criticism of the calling to the witness stand of Mrs. Ward. "When you ask a man's wife to testify against him, you ask a violation of God's law," he said, asserting that the testimony of Mrs. Ward added nothing to the State's case, detracted nothing from her husband's reputation, and served merely to increase her agonized worry lest "her word seal the doom of her husband."

Declares Peters Was Gunman.

Mills charged that Peters, who it had been shown in the testimony, came to New York with less than $2 in his pocket and a pack of playing cards, hired himself out as a gunman to those who Mills said were his accomplices. He declared the paths of Ward and Peters never had crossed before the night of the tragedy.

Then he said that he refused to call any member of the Ward family to the stand to prevent the disclosure of the secret of the blackmail. "Put yourself in his place," Mills said to the jury. "Suppose you fell into the hands of evil men and they knew a secret that affected not only you but also the character and standing of your wife and children. Suppose they threatened to expose you. If you had a drop of red blood or manly honor in your veins, you would do just what Walter Ward did. When this case goes into your keeping, the life and happiness of this man, this woman, will rest in your hands."

Mills said that both George Washington and Alexander Hamilton submitted to blackmail.

NEVER ANY INDIANS LIKE
COOPER'S, BISHOP ASSERTS

Author's Heroes Existed Only in Imagination, It Is Asserted, but Red Man Is Poet at Heart.

By the Associated Press.
CHICAGO, Sept. 23.—Indian heroes, such as some American writers have told about, exist only in the imagination of the authors, Bishop Hugh L. Burleson of the South Dakota diocese of the Episcopal Church declared in an address last night at a Midwest conference on Indian affairs held at Evanston for the purpose of bettering the conditions of the Indians throughout the country. "There never were any Indians such as James Fenimore Cooper wrote about in his tales," Bishop Burleson declared. "These heroes exist only in his imagination; the American Indian is not a demi-god. The Indians, however, are worth while and when we stop to think that only 50 years ago they were barbarians their advancement under conditions such as they faced has been great. The Indian at heart is a poet. This is seen in the names he gives to even commonplace things in his life. When the Indian is converted God becomes real to him."

The general impression that the Indian race is dying out is incorrect.

Bishop Burleson declared. In the last five years, he said, they have increased by 5000 and now number 340,000.

Wrapping Paper

is an essential commodity to modern business.

Modern business demands one thing from its wrapping paper—efficient service.

It was to meet this demand economically that Mosinee, the uniform Wrapping Paper, was standardized some ten years ago.

Till then there was no such thing as a standardized wrapping paper.

And from that day to this, Mosinee has stood forth as the one and only standardized, uniform Wrapping Paper on the market.

Make no mistake as to the Mosinee Mill label—see that it is on every roll and bundle you buy.

For back of this label is the guarantee of the Mills of Mosinee—that the paper will not overrun its basis weight and that it will test a full point of strength to every pound of weight.

That is the secret of Mosinee's economy—more yards per pound, less cost per yard.

PLANS FIGHT FOR PLAZA
SITE FOR COURTHOUSE

Citizens' City Plan Association to Oppose Campaign of Downtown Interests.

An active fight for completion of the Memorial Plaza—and public building group as was advocated in the bond-issue campaign, including erection of the new $4,000,000 courthouse on the old City Hall block between Twelfth boulevard, Eleventh, Market and Chestnut streets, is to be started by the Citizens' City Plan Association.

This is the first organization to begin active opposition to the campaign conducted for several months by the City Improvement Association and other interests in the eastern part of the downtown business district to obtain designation of a site adjoining the present courthouse, on Broadway between Market and Chestnut streets.

Directors of the Citizens' City Plan Association met yesterday at the Chamber of Commerce and adopted a resolution approving "the general plan of the City Plan Association of the City of St. Louis for the proposed group of public buildings and the proposed plaza which was included in the bond-issue election campaign of 1922, including location of the proposed new courthouse at the eastern end of the plaza, and urging city officials to adhere to the plan as proposed by the City Plan Association." The resolution was introduced by J. Lionberger Davis.

Keeping Faith With Voters.

The association was organized last spring, and announced that one of its objects was to back up the City Plan Commission in its work and to co-operate with the administration in all measures affecting city development.

Instructions were given by the directors to the Executive Committee to support the plan introduced in the resolution. Former Judge William T. Jones is president of the association. Other members of the Executive Committee are Nathan Frank,
Eugene Klein, Mrs. E. R. Kroeger,
Howard M. Swope, Otto Laffter, Em-met T. Carter, Mrs. N. A. McMillan and W. C. Connett.

Members of the board expressed the view that voters of the city, in approving the plaza and public building plan in the bond issue program of $7,000,000, did it with the understanding that it was to be a complete group. To fail to include the new Courthouse as a part of the group would not only break into the fundamental plan, it was said, but would be a failure to keep faith with the voters.

Great Difference in Cost.

It was pointed out that the city already owned the proposed site adjoining the plaza and the entire $4-000,000 could be expended on a building. If it was located on Broadway, land must be purchased at a probable cost of $1,000,000 to $1-500,000, leaving only a part of the $4,000,000 for the building.

The public building group, as pictured in the bond issue campaign and advocated by speakers, comprised the proposed Courthouse,
Memorial Building and $5,000,000
Municipal Auditorium, together with the present City Hall, Municipal Courts Building and Central Public Library, all adjoining a plaza covering seven squares.

A special committee of the Board of Aldermen has had the Courthouse site under consideration since spring, but has not presented its recommendation to the board.

Opponents of the plaza site took the position that designation of the site was a matter for the Board of Aldermen to determine and not the Board of Public Service. Members of the latter board have indicated that they favor the plaza site.

A referendum of lawyers resulted in a vote of 220 for the plaza site against 201 for a Broadway site. The Real Estate Exchange is conducting a similar referendum.

BIG ULCER ALL HEALED

"Now I Can Walk," Says Mrs. Southcott.

"Here is another letter that makes me happy," says Frances Southcott. "I would rather have than a thousand dollars."

"Money isn't everything in this world," says Mrs. Southcott. "I know that because I have seen people who would give all they have on earth to be able to produce a remedy with which they could heal their own ulcers."

Head this letter by Mrs. Albert Southcott. It is a true story, and it is a story that I know it because I got similar letters almost every day from people who have used my ointment for all sorts of ulcers and sores.

"Is it any wonder I am happy?" Frances Southcott writes.

"I was a simple sufferer from an old remedy sore and ulcer. I had tried everything without any relief from pain. A friend told me of your wonderful ointment and I tried it. The first day the pain that had not left me before in years, and after using just one jar of your ointment, the sore was healed. The ulcer was 6 inches by 4 inches, is all healed and I can walk. Never, never will I be without your ointment again."

"You may use this to recommend your ointment if you wish. I cannot say enough to praise it. Yours truly, Mrs. Albert Southcott, Landover, N. Y."

DANDRUFF SOON DESTROYS THE HAIR

If you want plenty of thick, beautiful, glossy silky hair, do it by means of getting rid of dandruff, for it will starve your hair and ruin it if you don't.

It doesn't do much good to try to brush or wash it out. The only sure way to get rid of dandruff is to destroy it, then you destroy it entirely. To do this, get about four ounces of ordinary liquid arvon and apply it at night when retiring; use enough to moisten the scalp and rub it in gently with the finger tips.

By morning, most, if not all, of your dandruff will be gone, and two or three more applications will completely dissolve and entirely destroy every single sign and trace of it.

You will find, too, that all itching and itching of the scalp will stop, and your hair will look and feel a hundred times better. You can get liquid arvon at any drug store. Four ounces is all you will need, no matter how much dandruff you have. This simple remedy never fails.

HIGH BLOOD PRESSURE

You May Have It—
But Don't Know It.

Norma is the name of the one successful prescription that thousands are daily taking to reduce high blood pressure to normal—often one bottle brings assurance of permanent reduction.

Used with unvarying success for many years in his private practice, and being purely vegetable and harmless, a learned Buffalo physician decided to allow it to be dispensed in pharmacies of the better class.

There is little mystery today regarding high blood pressure, yet it is a dread condition that causes constant worry to those who have it.

The most pronounced symptoms are dizzy spells, hot flashes, shortness of breath, dreams that disturb sleep, headache, nervousness and a moody feeling that something dreadful is going to happen.

Norma is for high blood pressure and nothing else, and that is why it does reduce high blood pressure, and as that condition usually prevails with women at the important change in life, many have found it the most helpful of remedies.

Wolf, Wilson, Judge & Dolph, Endicott and Johnson Drug Stores sell it, and know what the new regime, the Greek God, it is—so do druggists everywhere. If your druggist can't get it for you, it will be sent C. O. D. by mail from Norma Laboratories, Inc., Albany, N. Y.

A description of the coming aviation meet at St. Louis, its participants and purpose, as well as some of the things of its program, was given for the benefit of listeners-in who heard the K S D program last night.

The speaker was Evan J. David, former editor of The Flying Magazine and a writer on aeronautics as well as author of several books, short stories and articles on labor problems. David is in St. Louis as an official of the committee in charge of the arrangements for the Flying Meet. The facts he told his hearers were interesting because they gave a complete description of the plan of the meet which is to take place Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday of next week.

The program last night was virtually a recital in expression given by Miss Bernice O'Brien, assisted by Mrs. Florence Ferris Hutchinson, pianist. Miss O'Brien's program was varied and interesting and brought forth many compliments by telephone during the evening. Mrs. Hutchinson gave three piano numbers which were of the lighter class and were presented with pleasing effect.

Tonight, Station KSD will broadcast two concerts, the first, from 7 to 9, will be given by Seth Abernethy's Concert Orchestra at Hotel Statler, and the second, from 11 to 1, will be the dance music played by Gene Rodemich's Orchestra, also at Hotel Statler.

DR. STEINMETZ APPROVES MOVIE THRILLERS FOR BOYS

Greatest Single Power for Good Developed in Last Two Decades.

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 25.—Movie thrillers are the greatest single power for good developed in the last two decades, according to Dr. Charles Proteus Steinmetz, electrical wizard, who is here on a vacation. The movies are his greatest source of recreation.

"Motion pictures are our greatest educational factor toward making clean-minded boys and girls and in producing fine citizens of the future," Dr. Steinmetz said. "Personally I don't agree with censors who want to cut all shooting, gun play, villainy and everything else out of the films. America is a fighting nation. She has proved it in a half-dozen wars. Every American boy is born with a desire to know how to handle a gun properly, and most of them learn."

"I like Western pictures because they are reminiscent of frontier days. I think they are good for the youngsters because they instill a love of adventure, a desire to do things—give them initiative and imagination, which is a great combination."

GREECE TO RETURN PROPERTY SEIZED FROM THE BULGARS

ATHENS, Sept. 3.—An assurance of its desire to cultivate friendly relations with Bulgaria under the new regime, the Greek government has notified the provincial authorities that all Bulgarians interned on Aegean islands from Western Thrace during the operations of the war with Turkey must be returned to their original homes.

The restoration of all seized properties of these interned inhabitants on no more direct proof than the testimony of their neighbors has also been ordered.

All Bulgarians who have fled from Western Thrace will also be permitted to return to their homes, and their properties, which have been seized by military authorities or by deserters, will be restored on the same conditions as those of the inhabitants now released from internment.

It is estimated that these orders of restitution affect between 150,000 and 200,000 persons.

GIFT IN HONOR OF SAINT

Sweden's "Artist Prince" Sends It for Commemorative Service.

Correspondence of the Associated Press. STOCKHOLM, Sept. 4.—A handsome silver vase, designed and wrought by Prince Eugene, brother of King Gustave, was the contribution of Sweden's "Artist Prince," to the recent commemorative services for St. Bridget, Sweden's first great international figure. The services, held in the ancient town of Vadstena, home of St. Bridget and seat of the Brigittine convent she founded, attracted wide attention.

Tributes were paid to the religious leader's memory by Selma Lagerlof, greatest of Sweden's women novelists, and Dr. Nathan Soderblom, Lutheran Archbishop of Sweden. St. Bridget, or Birgitta, was born in Sweden in 1303, of noble family. On the death of her husband, she turned to religious service and founded the famous convent. Her books of prophecies and revelations are Swedish classics.

Physician Explains Who Should Take Nuxated Iron Practical Advice on How to Help Build Up Great Strength, Energy and Endurance

"Lack of iron in the blood not only makes a man a physical and mental weakling, nervous, irritable, easily fatigued, but it utterly robs him of that virile force, that stamina and strength of will which are so necessary to success and power in every walk of life," says Dr. Emil Sauer, well known New England physician. "It may also transform a beautiful, sweet-tempered woman into one who is cross, nervous and irritable. I have strongly emphasized the great necessity of physicians making blood examinations of their weak, anemic, run-down patients. Thousands of persons go on year after year suffering from physical weakness and a highly nervous condition due to lack of sufficient iron in their red blood corpuscles without ever realizing the real cause of their trouble. Without iron in your blood your food merely passes through the body something like corn through an old mill with rollers so wide apart that the mill can't grind. For want of iron you may be an old man at thirty, dull of intellect, poor in memory, nervous, irritable and all run down, while at 50 or 60 with plenty of iron in your blood you may be as vigorous as a young man."

Church Advertising Urged.
In church advertising, by presented yesterday, at the meeting of the St. Louis Presby-

KLAN LIKELY TO BE MADE AN ISSUE IN BOTH CONVENTIONS

Opponents of Order Said to Be Determined to Compel Definite Expression of Parties' Attitude.

By DAVID LAWRENCE.
(Copyright, 1923.)
WASHINGTON, Sept. 26.—The Ku Klux Klan issue will inevitably be an issue before the Republican and Democratic national conventions.

Politicians reluctantly have come to that conclusion after receiving reports from various parts of the Union. It will be agitated, not by those who favor the principles of Ku Kluxism, but by those who oppose the Klan. Naturally, the opponents will not be permitted to have things their own way, for both conventions will number among their delegates men who are affiliated with the Klan.

The difficulty of avoiding or side-stepping the issue has been fully discussed in the inner councils of political leaders. But it seems apparent that those who are opposed by the Klan will demand denunciatory resolutions as the price of their continued support.

Catholics and Negroes Incensed.

The situation in the Republican party arises out of the fact that the Republican vote in some of the pivotal Northern states has been increased since 1920 by hundreds of thousands of colored voters who have migrated northward. They are demanding that the Republican party denounce, not only lynch law, but all forms of lawlessness and all operations of secret, oath-bound organizations.

The Democratic party receives much of its support in the populous states of New York, Massachusetts and New Jersey, where Catholic societies are well organized and can wield considerable political power.
The party that denounces the Klan will make a strong bid for the Irish-Catholic vote, which was strong enough in 1920 to swing several states on the League of Nations issue, which so many of the Irish-Americans violently opposed. The fact that the Irish-Catholic vote will leave the Democratic party if the issue is serious enough has been demonstrated sufficiently to make the Democratic leaders wary about ignoring that element in the party.

May Have Bearing on Candidates.
The Klan issue is so much of a factor already that it may even have an influence on the choice of candidates. There are rumors, for instance, that friends of Senator Oscar Underwood are urging him to take the leadership in opposing the Klan, contending that since he comes from the South, his opposition will be even more weighty than might otherwise be the case.

The growth of the Klan in the three years since the 1920 convention has been so widespread that political leaders have no basis of comparison with other years. There are always movements in every convention to denounce things, but the Ku Klux Klan in 1920 was relatively a negligible factor in national politics.
Should an effort be made in the platform committees of either party to squelch the question without any expression whatsoever, it seems certain that the issue will be raised from the first moment of the convention.

Reports received by some of the party leaders here indicate that both political parties will be challenged to say something that, in effect, will seek to compel the Klan to throw off its mask and conduct its campaigns in the open as do other social, political or religious organizations.

ALLEGES DRY RATIFICATION
IN NEW YORK WAS ILLEGAL

Lawyer Says State Court Decision on Confiscation of Liquor Was Bar to Action.

By the Associated Press.
NEW YORK, Sept. 26.—Emilien
Hare Miller, an attorney of this city, has filed a petition with State Attorney-General Sherman, alleging that New York State's ratification of the Eighteenth Amendment was in violation of the State Constitution and asking for a public hearing, with a view to a test of the validity of the Legislature's action. The application was made, he said, at the suggestion of Gov. Smith, with whom he had been in correspondence.

Miller said he called the Governor's attention to the fact that a number of years prior to the ratification of the Eighteenth Amendment by the Legislature the State Court of Appeals decided, in the case of Wynhamer vs. Peouie, that the Legislature was forbidden by the State Constitution to pass any act which confiscated property in alcoholic liquors theretofore owned by citizens of the State and legally acquired. This ruling, standing unmodified, amounted to a prohibition of the action taken by the Legislature on the Eighteenth Amendment, according to Miller.

Secretary of the Treasury has been accepted by President Obregon, has assured a delegation representing the Co-Operatista party in the Chamber of Deputies that his retirement has altered the circumstances and made it possible for him to reconsid-

MUSIC BEATS TONIC FOR MAKING THE HAIR GROW
At Least So Says French Savant, Who Asserts Only 2 Per Cent of Musicians Go Bald.
(Copyright, 1933, by the Press and Publishing Co., The New York World and the Post-Dispatch.)
PARIS, Sept. 26.—The tradition of long-haired musicians has now been given scientific standing. A university professor has collected statistics and announces his conclusions that of all the liberal professions music appears the most beneficial in its effect on hair.
The Magazine of Science and Voyages, publishes his figures, showing that only 2 per cent of musicians ever go bald, compared to 10 per cent of literary men.

The polished dome of the noted cellist Pablo Casals is cited as the traditional exception which proves the rule.

WEALTHY MAN'S NAME IN MURDER CASE

Philadelphia, 40, Said to Have Been Attentive to 15-Year-Old Girl Found Slain.
Special to the Post-Dispatch.
MILLVILLE N. J., Sept. 26.—The butterfly life led by 15-year-old Emma Dickson, while she posed under the cloak of aspiring to become a missionary and as organizer for the Nazarene Church of Port Elizabeth, Philadelphia into the search for her murderer. This man's name was withheld but he was said to be 40, married and a summer resident in the little island community of Bricksboro, where the motherless girl lived with her father, Thompy Dickson, the village eccentric.
The discovery of this new suspect brought the list of the men, known to have been attentive to Emma, to eight. It was said the Philadelphia answered closely to the description of a man seen in a Dodge car with Emma Dickson on the night she disappeared in her best clothes from her father's home.
Emma's body was exhumed yesterday afternoon and taken to the county seat, for an autopsy.
Other developments included discovery of finger prints on a six-foot length of board, formerly part of a barn door, which was found blood-stained and covered with the girl's hair, beside her body and only a few feet from the bloodstained hub cap of a Durant automobile with which she was killed.
J. C. Kline, finger print expert of the Philadelphia police, went to Bridgeton and obtained photographs of these, which will be compared with the finger prints to be obtained from several suspects.
State Trooper James Conley found a two-room cave dwelling opposite the spot fitted up with beds, tables and electric lights, on the banks of the Manumassing Creek, where the body was found Saturday.
On the door were the initials "B. S." According to the authorities these initials are those of a Port Elizabeth youth and a friend of the owner of the only Durant car in this vicinity.
Upon investigation Conley found a part of this cave had been blown in with dynamite and that it formerly had a door not dissimilar to the one from which the fragment found near the body was torn.
In addition to these developments the authorities advanced the supposition Emma was not killed immediately after she disappeared, Sept. 13, but was held prisoner by someone, who later killed her.

$100,000 BLACKMAIL PLOT

CHICAGO, Sept. 26.—An alleged plot by blackmailers to extort $100,000 from John B. Drake, one of the owners of the Drake and Blackstone hotels here, has become known through the activities of four Post-office Department inspectors working with city and hotel detectives.

Threats of death if their demands were not complied with were made by the blackmailers in letters to Drake and to his son, John B. Drake Jr., sent in the last two weeks, it was said. A decoy package containing paper, was sent in reply to one of the demands, resulting in letters making further demands. It is believed certain employees of Drake may be involved.

4 CHILDREN, 5 DETECTIVES AND WOMAN IN AUTO ACCIDENTS

Four children were injured in automobile accidents yesterday.
Thomas Hawkins, 4 years old, 1918 Hickory street, was cut on his head when knocked down while crossing Eleventh street near Hickory street.
Clarence Klaus, 9, of 3405 South Spring avenue, suffered cuts on hip and head when knocked down at McDonald and Spring avenues.
Douglas Nance, 6, a negro of 2639 Papin street, probably suffered a fracture of the skull when struck in front of 2719 Chouteau avenue.
James Campbell, 7, of 1310 St. Ange avenue, suffered internal injuries and cuts when struck at Gratiot and Hickory streets.
Mrs. Maude Suggett, 48, of 4348 Forest Park boulevard, suffered abdominal injuries and a sprain of her hip when the automobile in which she was riding collided in front of 4227 West Pine boulevard with a car driven by P. T. Barrett, 6242 Westminster place, an attorney.
The police report of the collision declares that Barrett, who has an office in the Times Building, was driving on the wrong side of the street and that he was pronounced to be suffering from alcoholism when examined at City Hospital. The police charged Barrett with driving an automobile when intoxicated and applications has been made to the Circuit Attorney for a warrant on this charge.
Five members of the detective force were bruised when a police car in which they were riding collided with a truck at Jefferson avenue and Locust boulevard. Witnesses said the police car, driven by Detective Joseph Whelan, did not stop for the truck as it approached Locust traveling north on Jefferson. The detectives were going to North St. Louis to search for suspects in the $2212 payroll robbery of the F. C. Church Shoe Co.

GERMAN STAMP ORDER
Stamps have given out in many places in Germany and the efforts to continue handling letters are mentioned in a notice just received by the St. Louis postoffice from Paul Henderson, Second Assistant Postmaster-General, who quotes a notice from the Berlin office as follows:
"As a result of the lack of postage stamps, the German office is temporarily forced to attend the prepayment of correspondence for abroad by means of a notation showing the postage collected."
Henderson adds the directions of the United States service in this emergency to be: "Articles received at delivering postoffices marked for the collection of postage by the New York or other exchange offices will be delivered after the affixing of postage due stamps, as formerly. Articles, however, the envelopes or covers of which are without postage stamps, but marked 'Taxe percue' or otherwise marked to indicate postage has been paid in money may be delivered without the collection of postage, pending the time when postage stamps will again be used in Germany."

My Experience is that DR. CALDWELL'S SYRUP PEPSIN Is just what you need
This Will Make Digestion Easy
WHAT the dyspeptic needs is not soda and charcoal and breath perfumes but a medicine that will help his bowels to move regularly, for dyspepsia and constipation are allied. If you will take Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin systematically as the directions on the package call for you will soon digest your food properly and pass it out normally, and heartburn, belching, dizziness, nervousness and bloating will vanish. In time you can dispense with all medicines as Syrup Pepsin will have exercised the intestinal and stomach muscles so they act for themselves.
Mr. Lewis F. Schultz of Reasner, Ia., Mrs. Victor Knodler of 3625 Bank St., Louisville, Ky., and hosts of others will verify this.
World Acclaims Success
Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin is the prescription of a well-known physician of that name who practised successfully for 47 years. It has been on the market thirty years and is today the largest selling liquid laxative in the world. Thousands of families have it in their medicine chest ready when any member shows signs of dyspepsia, constipation, torpid liver, sour stomach, biliousness, coated tongue, offensive breath, headaches and such ailments that indicate deranged stomach and bowels. Many serious diseases are prevented by this timely aid.
Formula Plainly Stated
Have no hesitancy giving Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin to anyone young or old. It is a mild, gentle laxative free from narcotics. It will not cramp or gripe. The formula is on the package, a compound of Egyptian senna with pepsin and simple aromatics. A bottle can be had at any drug store and averages less than a cent a dose. Economical for families and fully guaranteed. You will find it a great improvement in taste and action over castor oil, or "candy cathartics" made from coal-tar that cause skin diseases, calomel that loosens the teeth, salts in water or powder that concentrate the blood and dry the skin.

Your Life in Your Hands!
Lifebuoy Protects and Gives Skin Beauty, Too
HOW can you for a single instant risk the loss of the only thing in life worth while—your good health? Health is too often contemptuous of its foes. Yet these foes are dangerous—and ever present.
The simplest things you touch are the most frequent causes of sickness—books, public telephones, doorknobs, car straps and hundreds of others.
Why Hands Must Be Purified
Doctors no longer worry about many things which used to be thought responsible for the spread of disease—they now know beyond all question that sickness is communicated almost entirely by contact with those who are sick or have apparently recovered but who deposit germs on everything they touch.
You cannot always help touching these people or the articles they handle. You cannot even keep your hands away from your nose, mouth or food. But you can purify your hands frequently.
A true health soap is the greatest preventive medicine ever created—the most valuable guardian of health.
The Famous Health Element
But the big quality, which makes Lifebuoy unlike any other soap, is the wonderful Health Element. The gentle antiseptic which the lather carries deep down into every pore, combating the invisible enemies always lurking on dirty hands.
It is the Health Element which mothers prize—which makes them so insistent that children and husband must purify hands and face with Lifebuoy after work or play, before eating and going to bed.
It is because Lifebuoy protects that mothers place a cake at every place where there is running water.

LABOR TO INITIATE COMPENSATION LAW

Principles to Be Incorporated in New Bill Agreed Upon at State Conference.
By the Associated Press.
JEFFERSON CITY, Sept. 26.—Twenty-four representatives of the various organized labor groups in Missouri, at a meeting here, agreed upon the features of a proposed workmen's compensation law and appointed a committee to draft the measure. It was announced today.
The meeting was called by President R. T. Wood of the State Federation of Labor, who presided. Among those present and active in the conference were Maurice Cassidy and T. W. McNamara of St. Louis. Cassidy was one of the active leaders in the 1927 campaign which suspended and resulted in the defeat of the compensation law enacted by the last Legislature.
It was decided that the new law shall not be left to the Legislature entirely, but will be submitted to the voters through the filing of initiative petitions, thus eliminating all possibility of amendment that might divide the various groups which now are co-operating.

Principal Features of Bill.
Among the principles agreed upon to be included in the new bill are:
Exclusive State Insurance.
Percentage of wages, 65-2-3 per cent at time of injury.
Waiting period of two days.
Medical aid for 90 days to extent of $500, with extension in special cases.
Injured employee to have right to choose physician and hospital.
Temporary total disability not more than 400 weeks; temporary partial disability not more than 400 weeks. Permanent total disability two-thirds of wages for life.
For loss of arm at shoulder two-thirds of wages for 300 weeks and all other permanent partial disability on that basis.
Burial benefit $250.
Death and Other Benefits.
Death benefit, two-thirds of wages for six years and a $50 maximum with power to commission to settle for one-third less when desirable.
Minimum for permanent total disability $12; permanent partial disability and death $10; all other cases $8.
Maximum in all cases of $30 a week.
Wage rule shall be two-thirds of wages at time of injury, based on full time work.

LEAGUE TRYING TO HASTEN DECISION UPON COVENANT

Speed in Getting Advisory Opinion of World Court Regarded As Highly Desirable.
By the Associated Press.
GENEVA, Sept. 26.—The desire for speed is actuating the League of Nations in its determination to have its covenant subjected to judicial interpretation, is evidenced by the fact that the special committee of legal experts has already framed its preliminary report. The examination was decided upon because of Italy's refusal to admit the competency of the covenant with respect to her recent dispute with Greece.
The League Council last night received report of the experts appointed to frame suitable questions on which the covenant could be judged, the idea being to submit them to the Permanent Court of International Justice for an advisory opinion on just what does the covenant mean.
Multitudinous problems occupied five of the league commissions today as they sat simultaneously at league headquarters. The most troublesome problem was how to fix definitely the method whereby non-permanent members of the council should be elected. The system of election has never been clearly outlined and the deliberations were inconclusive. The council is composed of four permanent members—Great Britain, France, Italy and Japan. The six non-permanent members are Spain, Belgium, Brazil, China, Uruguay and Sweden. The non-permanent members are elected yearly, as the amendment providing that only two members should go out every year never was ratified.

The French proposed abolition of the temporary mixed commission of the league which handles disarmament questions, on the ground that it contains no representation of the Governments and therefore can achieve nothing concrete toward armament reduction. Lord Robert Cecil opposed the French suggestion, and the council came to no decision.

Pitchers Who Will Try to Beat the McGraw System

Last year and the year before the Yankees were said to have a pitching staff much stronger than that of John McGraw. The same opinion prevails this year. The pitchers who have won the pennant for Miller Huggins are, left to right: Sam Jones, Joe Bush, Bob Shawkey, Waite Hoyt, Carl Mays, Herb Pennock, Oscar Roettger and Pippas. Roettger is a St. Louis boy.

Sarazen Two Up On Alex Campbell After 18 Holes

Ray Derr Has 3-Hole Lead Over Cruickshank at Halfway Mark.

By the Associated Press.

PELHAM MANOR, N. Y., Sept. 26.

—After being 3 down to Alex Campbell of Cincinnati on the first 10 holes, Gene Sarazen, defending his title as professional golf champion, finished 13 holes 2 up in the third round today. The matches are at 36 holes.

Other matches after 18 holes had been played stood as follows:

Ray Derr, Glenside, Pa., 3 up on Robert Cruickshank, Westfield, N. Y.

William MacFarlane, Tuckahoe, N. Y., 6 up on Jack Stait, Hartford, Conn.

Clarence Hackney, Atlantic City, 2 up on Fred McLeod, Washington.

Jim Barnes of Pelham, four up on Cyril Walker, Englewood, N. Y.

John Farrell, Mamaroneck, N. Y., three up on Joe Kirkwood, New York.

Walter Hagen, New York, four up on John Golden, Tuxedo, N. Y.

Willie Ogg, Worcester, Mass., five up on George McLean, Bronxville, N. Y.

It is an accepted tradition that St. Louis is a poor city for a recruit to break in. Baseball managers almost unanimously agree that one slip of the part of a recruit calls down the condemnation of the stands, and few recruits can stand it. Lester Bell, who had made several rifle shot holes in the field house, has set the test and survived it. He has had his third degree and conquered it.

The situation yesterday was one which showed Bell's courage in the first run was at the plate. Wilbert Robinson ordered him purposely passed to fill the bases for Charley Barrett's "young feller."

The recruit and the pinch.

The first two pitches were strikes that Bell allowed to slip over the outside corner. He fouled off the next one and finally worked the count to three balls and two strikes. The next pitch was the ball game. Bell lined sharply into the field house, has set the test and survived it. He has had his third degree and conquered it.

These were omens that which he ran over for smashes that whistled toward left field far to his right. He made the stops, stops that few shortstops can make, and he turned low line throwers to first base that past those hits have bounced directly to left field for singles. In time

Washington Athletes Drop Old Nickname; To Be Known as Bears

WASHINGTON, University athletes, long known as the Pikers, are desirous of changing their nickname. The sobriquet of Piker had its origin at the Washington Fair here in 1914. Washington University was situated at the end of what was known as the "Pike." The university was often referred to as the "Pike-way" and thereafter Washingtonians were called "Pikers."

However, it is the feeling among alumni and members of the Athletic Board that as the years pass the original meaning of the name is lost, and is replaced by the usual interpretation of the word piker, which is a term of opprobrium.

The athletic coaches, some students and a few alumni talked it over on the football field yesterday and decided to try to change the name to Bears, the appropriateness of that name resting on the fact that Missouri was once famous as a bear state and also because the State seal includes a bear.

As a result of the informal conference, efforts are now being made to obtain a bear as a mascot from the Ozarks.

CHINA ASKS FOR RECONSIDERATION OF ALLIED TERMS

Pekin Replies to Note Demanding Supplementary Indemnities in Kidnaping Case and Guarantees for Future.

By the Associated Press. PEKIN, Sept. 23.—Although denying responsibility for the Lincheng bandit outrage of last May in which a number of Americans and other foreigners were kidnaped from a Tientsin Shanghai express train and held captive for more than a month, the Chinese Government already has begun the reorganization of its railway policing and is preparing to punish the provincial officials for their negligence and is conducting a campaign throughout a number of provinces for the extermination of the growing bandit bands.

This information is contained in the Government's reply to the demands made by the foreign diplomatic corps for indemnities and guarantees as a result of the kidnaping incident. The reply rejects the demand for "supplementary indemnities" and asks reconsideration of demands for "guarantees for the future."

The government, according to the reply, desires "of its own accord" to indemnify the foreign victims of the bandits and accepts as a basis for payment the schedules set forth in the note of the Powers. But China does not believe that demand for "future reforms" and "guarantees" are proper under the circumstances. It is pointed out in answer to the "demand" for the reform of the railroad policing organization that measures to that end have already been taken voluntarily. It is denied that the Powers have the right to demand the punishment of the Chinese officials responsible for the bandit outrage, but it is asserted that the Peking Government "has already promptly punished or is considering for punishment those to whom responsibility is justly attributable."

The Lincheng incident is reviewed and it is declared that "Pekin felt as much indignation as the members of the diplomatic body." It also is pointed out that the kidnaping was in no way an anti-foreign demonstration and does not betray any symptom of special animosity toward foreigners. It is further stated that "a careful consideration of the facts in the case leads to the conclusion that no liability for damages can be predicated on the Chinese Government." In view, however, of the circumstances of the kidnaping as well as the suffering and indignities resulting, the Chinese Government desires of its own accord to do in the fullest measure whatever is equitable in the way of reparation to the foreign victims.

Regarding the guarantees for the future demanded in the note of the Powers, "the Chinese Government finds it difficult to give concurrence and sincerely hopes that the diplomatic body will reconsider its views." The reply argues that the kidnaping incident was perpetrated against Chinese as well as foreigners and there has been no evidence of official connivance.

KINSEY OPPOSES COLLECTION OF GARBAGE BY PRIVATE CONTRACT

Expression of Public Service Head Follows Bid by the Jefferson Co.

President Kinsey of the Board of Public Service said today that he was opposed to the collection of the city's garbage by any private contractor. The occasion for his expression was a bid submitted to the board yesterday by the Jefferson Distribution Co., a local organization, to dispose of all the city's garbage for $2.50 a ton. The company proposed to purchase the city's equipment, rent its stables, use the incinerator already established and carry the surplus garbage to heaps on an island in the Mississippi below the city. "All cities with experience in private garbage collection have reverted to municipal collection," Kinsey said. "The theory of private collection is to make a profit. The theory of city collection is to gather garbage thoroughly."

WRIST WATCH WINDS ITSELF

LONDON, Sept. 2.—British inventors have perfected a self-winding wrist watch. The constant movement of the hand of the wearer effects the winding by means of an oscillating slide in the movement, fitted with bearings which, it is claimed, prevent overwinding. The watch, the inventors say, will wind the hardest day's work.

Swan Visits Mrs. Swanson. SEQUIM, Wash.—While Mrs. Axel Swanson was picking beans in her garden this week, a large swan dropped in front of her. It believed the big bird, tired from buffeting off shore winds in its migratory flight, sought refuge among the tall pole beans, and did not see Mrs. Swanson. The bird imprisoned in the wire enclosure eats regularly and shows no inclination to attempt escape.

The Woman of It

THINGS WE YEARN TO SAY—AND DON'T

By MARGUERITE MOORE MARSHALL

THAT the woman who is glad long skirts are back must have TWO HIDDEN REASONS.

That the Office Chatterbox might realize SOMEBODY has work to do—if she hasn't.

That the narrow-shouldered male with the job-lot features and nearly nude dome, who believes the ladies never can resist him—has never looked in the glass.

That the man who says we NEEDN'T be a commuter if we don't WANT to be one is a particularly exasperating prevaricator.

That the woman who assures us she would trust her husband with us ANYWHERE, utters a catty compliment.

That the first person in the office to whom we tell a new story, and who repeats it to everybody else before we get the chance, ought to be shot at sunrise.

That the lady who boasts her husband never in all his life told her a lie either is a perfect fool, or thinks us one.

That our neighbors' children are the best arguments we know for race suicide.

That our friend's hat cost $4.98—and looks it—when she declares, triumphantly, that we never can GUESS what she paid.

That the home-made poem, frock, cake, bookcase to which its creator points with pride is a perfectly rotten job.

That the horse who talks to us about nothing for half an hour and then "hops they're not interfering with our work"—ARE! (To our brilliant and witty callers: This does NOT mean YOU!)

What we really think of girls who wear downtown (1) summer furs; (2) four-story earrings; (3) sleeveless gowns.

The Home Kitchen

By JEANNETTE YOUNG NORTON
The Authority on Home Cooking.
Eight Ways to Make Savory Muffins.

HOT bread is liked by almost everyone, especially the small breads for breakfast or luncheon use. Muffins with savory additions need only to be tasted to become popular. They are not any harder to make than plain muffins and they help out a lean meal most acceptably. Muffin-pan should be warmed and well buttered before they are put into a rising oven. If served on hot plates the muffins will keep hot a little longer than when put upon cold plates.

Tongue Muffins.

Beat a quarter cupful of butter to a cream and add to it a full half cupful of minced, cold boiled tongue. Add a beaten egg, a level cupful of white flour, three-quarters of a cupful of whole-wheat flour, three level teaspoonfuls of baking powder and a cupful of milk. Beat this mixture well, divide it into 12 greased muffin-pans and bake it in a brick oven for about 20 minutes.

Peanut-Butter Muffins.

Sift together two level cupfuls of flour, four level tablespoonfuls of baking powder and a tablespoonful of sugar. Cut in a tablespoonful of butter and three tablespoonfuls of peanut butter worked in with the finger tips, then beat two eggs and add to them a half cupful of milk. Beat all these ingredients together, adding a little more milk if it is needed to make the dough soft enough to drop readily from the spoon. Divide the batter in 12 muffin-tins, dust the top with a little sugar and bake.

Raisin Muffins.

Cream a half cupful of butter and add to it slowly, a full half cupful of sugar. Mix in three beaten eggs and one and a half cupful of milk. Sift in a cupful of flour with four teaspoonfuls of baking powder, then stir in slowly a cupful and three-quarters of fine yellow corn meal, and last of all a half cupful of chopped and seeded raisins. Mix the ingredients well, then divide the dough in 12 buttered muffin-tins and bake it in a brick oven.

Blueberry Muffins.

Cream a quarter of a cupful of butter and add gradually a quarter of a cupful of sugar and a beaten egg. Sift in two and a quarter cupfuls of flour, four level teaspoonfuls of baking powder, a salt-spoonful of salt, a cupful of milk and a cupful of washed blueberries. Gently stir with flour. Mix these ingredients well, divide the dough in 12 greased muffin-pans and bake it 20 minutes.

Rice Muffins.

Sift into two cupfuls of cold boiled rice, one pint of flour, a tablespoonful of salt and two and a half teaspoonfuls of baking powder, and work in slowly three beaten eggs and a half pint of milk. Beat these ingredients well until they are free from lumps, then divide the dough into well-buttered muffin-pans and bake it about 25 minutes.

Honey Muffins.

Sift together, one and a half pints of flour, a half teaspoonful of salt, and three teaspoonfuls of baking powder, then rub in two tablespoonfuls of butter. Add three beaten eggs, a cupful of strained honey and a half pint of milk. Beat well the mixture, then add a half cupful of finely chopped pecan nuts. Pour the dough into large and well-buttered muffin-pans and bake it from 10 to 15 minutes, according to the oven.

Sour Milk Muffins.

Mix a teaspoonful each of soda and cream of tartar into three cupfuls of sour milk. Sift together three cupfuls of flour and a salt-spoonful of salt, add the sour milk and two beaten eggs, beat all together, then add a half cupful of finely chopped dates. Divide the dough into muffin-pans and bake it in a hot oven.

Hominy Muffins.

To two cupfuls of cold, boiled hominy, add three cupfuls of sour milk, a salt-spoonful of salt, two tablespoonfuls of sugar, half a cupful of melted butter, three beaten eggs, a teaspoonful of baking soda dissolved in a little hot water and flour enough to make a good batter—about a cupful and a half. Beat the batter well, divide it into 12 buttered muffin-tins and bake in a brick oven.

..Fashion Frills..

LONDON.—Once more, the hesitating waist line! Many dressmakers are allowing it to be lower in back and higher in front—a style to be endured only by the slim of figure.

NEW YORK.—For those of slender waist, none of the season's modes is more becoming than the flare skirt. The silhouette demands a slight flare at the neck, a larger one at the cuffs, and a decided one at the hem of the costume.

NEW YORK.—Nothing can oust the overblouse which, in many cases, is the making or marring of a three-piece suit. At present the overblouse is beaded, preferably with steel beads.

NEW YORK.—For many reasons, one of them being the higher cost of silk, fine linen underwear is in favor today. It has a rather silken finish and is at its best when trimmed with lace insets and edgings now in fashion.

PARIS.—Tassels appear on hats, wraps and gowns in surprising profusion today. The tassel is an expression of the Chinese trend, but these tassels are larger, longer and more ornate than and Oriental head-dress ever known.

How You Can Help Your Daughter Give Her First Luncheon

By WANDA BARTON

MANY mothers with daughters between 10 and 16 feel that they have a distinct problem as well as a joy. The trouble seems to be principally in keeping them amused and their minds on the right rather than the wrong things of the age.

Sociability should be encouraged in young people and the best way to do it is to make home attractive. If they can dance, have music, games and refreshments for them and for their guests at home, with enough freedom to enable them to feel that they are not being watched and criticised. They will stay home gladly under these circumstances. Otherwise they will seek their pleasures elsewhere and we shall have but ourselves to blame.

Young daughters love tea parties, luncheons and in fact any sort of social gatherings, and it is a nice way for them to entertain. Mother should help receive the guests and start things moving, then she should slip away and leave her daughter to play hostess after her own fashion. Consult your daughter about the decorations—in fact let her plan and carry them out herself. Let her also have a voice in the menu. Perhaps if she is so inclined, she will want to make a cake or some other delicacy that she can show as her very own. Don't discourage her. Let her try it. If she is successful, she may do quite a little along that line which will be helpful to her later on.

Usually all functions during the school year must come between Friday afternoon and Sunday night, so they should be arranged accordingly. A Saturday luncheon can be given at an hour that will allow a matinee afterward if desired, or any other form of amusement that has been planned for the afternoon.

A simple menu is never disconcerting and is easily handled. For instance, a cup of bouillon, broth, or a cream soup should start the luncheon. Chops and peas with a baked potato or mashed potatoes may follow, with fried bananas, rolls and hot cocoa. A simple fruit salad is generally liked or a vegetable salad, then the dessert, which may be hot or cold according to convenience. There is nothing complicated about such a meal and it is good and wholesome. Floating island, hot gingerbread and apple sauce, fruit pudding, fancy cake with jelly are easily-made desserts and children like them. A little creamed chicken may take the place of the chops, or creamed eggs may be used.

The secret of a good time for all, is to ask children who are about of an age and those who are congenial at school. Great differences in age never make a good gathering. Quarrels are almost certain to ensue. Children always rise to an occasion where their own responsibility must be taken into account. Many a mother would be surprised to look in on a luncheon party where her daughter was playing hostess and see how many of her own mannerisms appeared in the young hostess. It would be a revelation to her to see how closely she had been watched and copied unconsciously.

POTATO SALAD

(To Serve Six People.)

BOil potatoes in salt water with jackets, till tender; drain and cool; pare and slice, place in bowl. Take one-half pint thick sour cream, two tablespoons vinegar (or to taste), one-half teaspoon salt, one teaspoon granulated sugar and a little ground pepper, one onion sliced or grated (can be omitted), one-half cup celery sliced fine, one hard-boiled egg chopped fine to garnish with celery leaves or lettuce.

FROM NOW ON

By FRANK L. PACKARD.

A CONTINUED STORY

His jaws tightened. There was but one, single, disturbing factor. If anything went wrong, Teresa was still upstairs there. In every other respect the stage was set—for any eventuality. He had even taken the precaution, before doing anything else, to get their valises, hers and his, out of the place, since in any case they meant to steal away from this accursed traphouse of Dago George. It had been simple enough to dispose of the baggage via the fire escape, and through the yard, and down the lane, where the valises had found a temporary hiding place in a shed, whose door, opening on the lane, he had discovered ajar, and simple enough, with Teresa's help in regaining the fire escape from the ground, to return in the same way; but he had been actuated by more than the mere idea of being unimpeded in flight if a critical situation subsequently arose—though in this, his ulterior motive, he had failed utterly of success. Teresa had agreed thoroughly in the wisdom of first removing their belongings; but she had refused positively to accompany and remain with the baggage herself, as he had hoped he might induce her to do. "I wouldn't be of any use there, if anything happened," she had said; "I—I might be of some use here."—Neither argument nor expostulation had been of any avail. She was still above there—waiting.

He had reached the head of the lower flight of stairs, and now he halted, and stood motionless. There was a sound from below. It was neither imagination nor fancy; it was distinct and unmistakable—a low, rasping, metallic sound.

For an interval of seconds he stood there listening; then he shifted the flashlight, switched off now, to his left hand, and his right hand slipped into his pocket for his revolver. He moved forward then silently, noiselessly, and, as he descended the stairway, paused at every step to listen intently again. The sound, with short, almost negligible interruptions, persisted; and with it now, it seemed as though he could distinguish the sound of heavy breathing. And now it seemed, too, as though the blackness were less opaque, as though, while there was still no object discernible, the hallway below was in a sort of murk, and as though, from somewhere, light rays, that were either carefully guarded or had expended through distance, almost all their energy, were still striving to pierce the darkness.

Tight-lipped now, a few steps farther down, Dave Henderson leaned over the bannister—and hung there tensely, rigidly.

It was like looking upon some weird, uncannily clever effect that had been thrown upon a moving picture screen. The door of Dago George's room was wide open, and through this he could see a white circle of light, the rays thrown away from and in the opposite direction to the door. They flooded the face of a safe; and, darkly, behind the light itself, two figures were faintly outlined, one kneeling at the safe, the other holding a flashlight and standing over the kneeling man's shoulder. And now the nature of the sounds that he had not been able to define was obvious—it was the click of a ratchet, the rasp of a bit eating voraciously into steel, as the kneeling man worked at the face of the safe.

For a moment, his eyes narrowed, half in sudden, angry menace, half in perplexity, he hung there gazing on the scene; and then, with all the caution that he knew, his weight thrown gradually on each separate tread to guard against a protesting creak, he went on down the stairs.

It was strange—damnable and most curiously strange! Was one of those figures in there Dago George? If so, it would account for the presence of a second man—the one Teresa had heard coming down stairs. But, if so, what was Dago George's game? Was the man going to put up the bluff that he had been robbed, and was therefore wrecking his own safe? That was an old gag! But what purpose could it serve Dago George in the present instance? It wasn't as though he, Dave Henderson, had confided the package to Dago George's keeping, and Dago George could take this means of cunningly securing it for himself. Dago George had stolen it—and, logically, the last thing Dago George would do would be to admit any knowledge of it, let alone flaunt it openly!

At the foot of the stairs, Dave Henderson discarded that theory as untenable. But if, then, neither one of the two in there was Dago George—where was Dago George? It was a little beyond attributing to mere coincidence, the fact that a couple of marauding safe-breakers should have happened to select Dago George's safe tonight in the ordinary routine of their nefarious vocation. Coincidence, as an explanation, wasn't good enough! It looked queer—extremely queer! Where he had thought that no one, save Millman and himself, had known anything about the presence of that money in New York tonight, it appeared that a most amazing number were not only aware of it, but were intimately interested in that fact!

He smiled a little in the darkness, not pleasantly, as he crept now, inch by inch, along the hall toward the open door. He, too, was interested in that package of banknotes in the safe! And, Dago George or the devil, it mattered very little which, there would be a showdown, very likely now a grim and very pretty little showdown, before the money left that room in anyone's possession save his own.

From ahead, inside the room, there came a slight clatter, as though a tool of some sort had been dropped or tossed on the floor. It was followed by a muttered exclamation, and then a sort of breathless, but triumphant grunt. And then a voice, in a guttural undertone:

"Dere youse are, sport! Help yourself!"

Dave Henderson crouched back against the wall. He was well along the hall now, and quite close enough to the doorway of Dago George's private domain to enable him, given the necessary light, to see the whole interior quite freely. The door of the safe, in a dismantled condition, was swung open; strewn on the floor lay the kit of tools through whose instrumentality the job had been accomplished; and the man with the flashlight was bending forward, the white ray flooding the inside of the safe.

There came suddenly now a queer twitching to Dave Henderson's lips, and it came coincidentally with a sharp exclamation of delight from the man with the flashlight. In the man's hand was the original package of banknotes, its torn corner identifying it instantly to Dave Henderson, and evidencing with equal certainty to its immediate possessor that it was the object, presumably, which was sought.

And now the man with the flashlight, without turning, reached out and laid the package on the desk beside the safe. The movement, however, sent the flashlight's ray in a jerky half circle around the room, and mechanically Dave Henderson raised his hand and brushed it across his eyes. Was that fancy—what he had seen? It was gone now, it was dark in the room, for the flashlight was boring into the safe again, and the man with the flashlight seemed intent on the balance of the safe's contents.

It had been only a glimpse, a glimpse that had lasted no longer than the time it takes a watch to tick, but it seemed to have mirrored itself upon Dave Henderson's brain so that he could still see it even in the darkness: It was a huddled form on the floor, close by the bed, just as though it had pitched itself convulsively out of the bed, and it lay there sprawled grotesquely, and the white face had seemed to grin at him in a horrid and contorted way—and it was the face of Dago George.

The man with the flashlight spoke suddenly over his shoulder to his companion:

THE RHYMING OPTIMIST

By Aline Michaelis

A Pal.

IVE found it a foolish plan to ask too much of life, for many times the way of man is set through paths of strife. Folks may not loil about always in beds of flowery ease; most every week has some off days, a few have six of these. So I no more insist on things I used to specify! I don't demand the wealth of Kings, nor gauds to please the eye. In fact, wherever I am sent, I still can hum a song and go my way quite well content if I've a pal along. A pal can lighten up the load and make me satisfied with almost any sort of road, just so he's by my side. A pal is one who plays the game and meets the soul's demands; day after day he's still the same, he always understands. However fortune's wheel may spin, his spirit stanch and true will take your part through thick and thin, whatever you may do. I used to ask for wealth and power, a stately dwelling place; but now I prize a greater dower—a pal's good, honest face. So many things the world esteems, beauty and wit and lands; none like a pal who shares your dreams, a pal who understands! So many gifts that gold can buy, treasures of art and song; but still, there's one that comes too high—a pal the whole day long.

The Pendulum of Fashion PHILOSOPHY

By WINIFRED BLACK

OH, misery!—the figure is going to change again! Who is the fiend in human form who sits up nights in Paris tying nice, straight, supple, clear-eyed, rosy cheeks into knots and making them look like pale consumptives, and hospital for one last look at the gay world before they lie down in coffins?

Pale cheeks are the fashion, paler, we are told, than even be really smart, they say, you have to have three dents in your a dent that makes you thrust your head forward like a turtle's shoulders down as if you were too discouraged to breathe, and what's the use, look at the next fashion magazine and you'll get it.

They Lured Us On.
No hips, no bust, no shoulders—just knees and ankles and blades and a yearning expression and a white, white face. Oh, were a young man I'd go out in the country and find me a red freckle-faced girl with cheeks like apples and a figure that really something like a figure—just for a change!

And they lured us on to such high hopes, those fashion boys! We heard about crinolines and sweeping draperies, and gowns with strings and shawls, and we began to imagine that was going to look like women again, but no, indeed—not so you can it.

There's nothing womanly or even feminine about the new scant skirts, cigarette cases—oh, well, what's the use?

It wouldn't fret me so much, only what I hate is to see the magazine and look at the weird creature in something that was fitted over a corset—there's no trouble about the hips in modes. And yesterday I met a young chap just going back to and he was wearing violet perfume. You could tell it across his and he belongs to the two best clubs in his university and is one of the most popular men in his class.

His sister is a very gentlemanly person in boy's show and sweater. They have lovely times together, the two of them, how it makes me dizzy to look at them. I always wonder if some mistake somewhere, somehow.

It's a "Scream."

And there is the other brother and sister, I know. One going to be a lawyer and the other is going to be a dressmaker. It's Sister who is to be the lawyer and Brother who's planning the dress designer. You ought to hear them talk about it, is, as Brother says, a "scream!"

But somehow I can't seem to care for the sound of the can you?

Oh, well, if we wait long enough, we'll have the swing of the pendulum and then the girls will all be wearing hoops and minnet. And the boys—what will the boys be doing?

Why, marrying the girls, of course! They always do, what kind the girl of the period happens to be. She always seems to suit the boy of the period, doesn't she really?

I suppose that is about all that actually matters, when right down to it, don't you?
